About the NASL

The North American Soccer League's (NASL) Golden Era put soccer on the map in the United States in the 1970s and '80s. The Modern Era, since 2011, has continued that rich history.

Entering its fifth season, the league has grown to 11 clubs, which will be the most since its return. The New York Cosmos, Tampa Bay Rowdies, and Fort Lauderdale Strikers names have carried on from the league's early years and they are joined by the Atlanta Silverbacks, Carolina RailHawks, FC Edmonton, Indy Eleven, Minnesota United FC, Ottawa Fury FC, San Antonio Scorpions and expansion side Jacksonville Armada FC in 2015.

With the steady growth of the league, the NASL has begun to attract more recognizable names on the global stage. Spanish legend Raúl will don the Cosmos' green and white kit, while Marvin Chavez and Sammy N'Djock, who were on the Honduran and Cameroonian National Team squads in the 2014 FIFA World Cup, have joined the Scorpions and United respectively. Brazilian legend Ronaldo has joined the Strikers as a part-owner.

United's Miguel Ibarra represented the U.S. Men's National Team for the first time in 2014 and started a match in January 2015, becoming the first player to do so since Perry Van Der Beck in 1985.

The clubs will compete under the league's split-season format, which will consist of 10 games in the Spring Season and 20 in the Fall Season. The winners of the Spring and Fall Seasons will earn a place in The Championship, the league's four-team playoff format. The two clubs with the next best overall records will receive the remaining playoff berths. The champion will lift the Soccer Bowl trophy, which is the third oldest men's professional outdoor soccer prize in the United States.

With their win in The Championship Final in 2014, the Scorpions earned their first NASL title defeating the Fort Lauderdale Strikers, 2-1, at Toyota Field in front of nearly 8,000 fans. The club joined the Cosmos, Rowdies, and NSC Minnesota Stars (now Minnesota United) as champions in the Modern Era.

The NASL set its newest regular season attendance record for the Modern Era, as 14,593 fans turned up to watch the Cosmos visit Ottawa Fury FC in the club's inaugural match at TD Place in 2014.

In addition to competing in league play, nine U.S. based clubs will compete in the 102nd edition of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. The Silverbacks and RailHawks reached the quarterfinals a season ago, combining for four victories over MLS sides. The two Canadian clubs – FC Edmonton and Ottawa Fury FC – will feature in the Amway Canadian Championship, where FC Edmonton fell just short of reaching the final for the first time in their history in 2014.

The Commissioner

Bill Peterson has spent more than 20 years growing and directing companies for some of the world's leaders in sports, entertainment, events, and hospitality on an international scale.

Peterson worked with the National Football League's European operation for almost 10 years, the last two as Managing Director and then President.

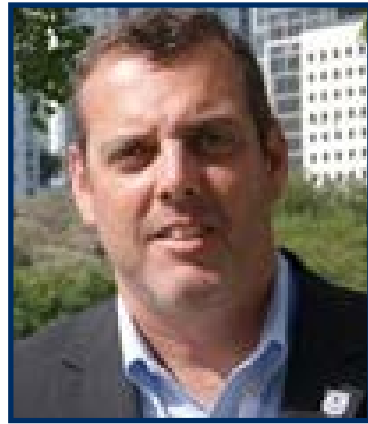

A former Vice President with Anschutz Entertainment Group in Los Angeles, Peterson drove its Sports Division, which managed everything from the David Beckham Academy to corporate-sponsored cycling, track and field and tennis events.

He helped oversee the management of numerous MLS teams and the development of soccer-specific stadiums across the country. As Managing Director of the Home Depot Center he spearheaded the construction of the nation's only 250-meter, indoor velodrome.

The Florida resident was named Commissioner of the North American Soccer League on November 27, 2012.

During his tenure the NASL has mirrored the style of other professional soccer leagues around the world by retaining a single table structure in 2013 as well as adding The Championship, the league's four-team postseason format in 2014.

As President of USA Cycling's Board of Directors, Peterson was an integral part of the initial development of the Tour of California and served as the point person for two UCI Track Cycling World Championships. He continues to serve as Chairman of the USA Cycling Professional Committee.

Bill Peterson
NASL Commissioner

Peterson provided advisory and event services to a variety of clients in Canada and the United States through his own firm Solve4 and served briefly as COO of the United Football League.

He was the Executive Vice President of Centerplate, the North American market leader for managing food and beverage, retail, restaurant, and events in sports facilities, convention centers, and entertainment complexes.

Peterson earned his Bachelor of Science in health, physical education and recreation from Lock Haven University in Pennsylvania. He has also served on advisory boards for: the Los Angeles Sports Commission, LA Triathlon, Long Beach Convention and Visitors Board, California State University, Dominguez Hills Education and the Board of Governors for Major League Soccer.

He has been married for 13 years to his wife Lisa and they have two daughters.

Board of Governors

Aaron Davidson

Chairman - Board of Governors

The NASL is owned and operated by its member teams through the Board of Governors, which consists of a representative of each member team and is chaired by Aaron Davidson, President of Traffic Sports USA.

The Board oversees the League rules and regulations and governs the expansion and commercial strategy of the League. The Board also oversees the functions of the league office.

Aaron Davidson is a sports business executive and attorney with extensive experience in the commercial and legal aspects of the global sports and entertainment industry. He played integral roles in starting up and operating billion dollar sports media company Pan-American Sports Network (PSN) and the Latin American/Caribbean PGA Tour (Tour de las Americas – TLA).

Traffic Sports USA is responsible for developing, selling and marketing top professional soccer events with a special focus on the US Hispanic, Latin American and Caribbean markets.

Competition Format

Rules and Regulations

Structure: The 2015 NASL season will once again be played under a split-season format. The Spring and Fall Season Champions will each host a semifinal in the league's four-team postseason tournament, The Championship, and the pair will be joined by the next two clubs with the best combined records. The top seed in The Championship will be awarded to either the Spring or Fall Champion, depending on which has the better combined record in the regular season. The third and fourth seeds will then be determined by the teams' positions in the combined standings. The top-seeded team after the semifinals will host The Championship Final. If one club wins both season championships, the clubs posting the second, third, and fourth-best overall records will enter The Championship.

Schedule: In the 2015 Spring Season, 11 teams will play a 10-game schedule, competing against each other once. Following a break at the beginning of June, the Fall Season will kick off on July 4 and consist of 20 games – home-and-away against each side.

Point System: Teams will receive three points for a win, one point for a draw, and zero points for a loss.

Referees: All referees for NASL matches played in the United States are nationally certified referees assigned by the Professional Referee Organization (PRO), while the Canadian Soccer Association (CSA) assigns referees for all matches played in Canada.

Game Clock: The official game time for all NASL games will be managed on the field by the referee. If necessary, the referee may also allot extra time (stoppage time) at the end of each half – first, second, and if applicable, first overtime and second overtime during playoff games. The stadium clock will display the time from 0:00 to 45:00 and from 45:00 to 90:00 (plus stoppage time where applicable in each half). For statistical purposes, the minutes for goals, substitutions, yellow cards, etc., will be listed from the first minute until the 90th minute. For example, a goal scored at 15 minutes 10 seconds will be listed as having been scored in the 16th minute.

Team Rosters: During the season, each team's master roster shall be no less than 20 players and no more than 35 total players. Players can compete on a maximum of two teams per Spring or Fall season.

Active Roster and Inactive Roster: While the total roster-size can be 35 players, only 30 are eligible to be on the active roster at a given time. Only the players listed on the active roster can compete in a NASL league game. When a player is on the inactive roster, the player must remain inactive for 30 days. To move a player from the active to inactive roster or vice versa, the team must notify the Registrar, in writing, at least 48 hours prior to the league game to reflect the changes.

Domestic Players: Domestic players for teams located in the United States are a U.S. citizen, a permanent resident (green card holder) or the holder of other special status (e.g., refugee or asylum status). Domestic players for teams located in Canada are a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident, a landed immigrant (non-Canadian citizen permanent resident) or a player who qualifies as a domestic player in the United States.

International Players: Each team may list up to 7 non-domestic players on its master roster.

Game Day Rosters: Each team may nominate 18 players from its active roster for a game day roster. Teams are allowed three substitutions per game.

Cautions and Suspensions: A player will be suspended for one game upon receiving a fifth accumulated yellow card throughout the Spring or Fall season – regardless of the nature of the infraction. After a player has been suspended for five yellow cards, an additional one-game suspension will be added each time after another three yellow cards are accumulated. A player receiving two yellow cards in the same game will receive a red card and will be suspended for the next game. However, that will only count as one red card and not two yellow cards added to the accumulation total. A player that receives a direct red card will automatically be suspended for the next game, and the NASL Disciplinary Committee has the power to suspend him for additional games, depending upon the severity of the red card offense.

Card Suspensions: Red card and yellow card accumulation suspensions earned in regular season games will be served in that player's next regular season game. Any suspension for yellow card accumulation earned in a player's last regular season game will carry over into that season's first playoff game for his team. Any player who receives a red card in his team's last game of the season - NASL regular season or during playoff games - will serve the one-game suspension during their next game (whether it comes in The Championship Semifinals, Final, or in the first regular season game of the following season). All card suspensions will, if applicable, follow a player to a new team.

Suspension Manipulation: Players suspended from NASL regular season or playoff games that are called in for national team duty will have their suspensions held in abeyance until they return to their NASL team. Teams will be responsible for informing the League Office of a player's selection to national team duty. Failure to provide the League Office with such notice or to withhold the use of a suspended player when appropriate is subject to sanctions.

League Standings: The team awarded the highest position in the league standings will be the team with the greatest number of points at the conclusion of the respective Spring or Fall Season. In the event that two or more teams have an equal number of points, the following system will be used to determine their rank in the league standings:

1) Goal Differential: The highest position shall be awarded to the team with the greater goal difference against all other teams during the regular season.

2) Total Goals: The highest position shall be awarded to the team scoring the greatest number of total goals against all other teams during the regular season.

3) Head-To-Head Competition:

The highest position shall be awarded to the team with the best win/draw/loss record in regular season games against all other teams equal in points.

4) Away Goal Difference/Away Goals Scored:

The highest position shall be awarded to the team with the greater away goal differential than the other teams. If needed, the highest position shall be awarded to the team with the greater total of away goals scored.

Soccer Bowl Trophy: The winner of The Championship Final will be the league champion and receive the NASL Soccer Bowl Trophy.

League Ball and Silverware

NASL Official Match Ball:

Since January 17, 2014, the NASL and VOIT have engaged in a partnership in which the sporting goods manufacturer provides official NASL-branded match balls for matches and events. The custom ball incorporates the stars of the iconic original NASL ball, which represents the evolution of NASL branding from 1968 to 2013. VOIT adds the NASL to its impressive soccer portfolio, having been the official ball provider for Liga MX since 1987. VOIT has a presence in 15 countries worldwide, manufacturing goods for soccer, basketball, volleyball, swimming, and fitness.

The Soccer Bowl

The Soccer Bowl Trophy, named to honor the heritage of the NASL Golden Era, will be awarded annually to the winner of The Championship Final. The Soccer Bowl Trophy, which is third oldest men's professional outdoor soccer prize in the United States, was crafted in England and designed by 343RLP+ Creative. Each year, the NASL Champions have their team name engraved on the Soccer Bowl Trophy.

Spring and Fall Championship Trophies

Awarded to the winners of the respective Spring and Fall Championships, the trophies were custom made in England and designed by 343RLP+ Creative, the same company behind the Soccer Bowl Trophy and the NASL league branding.

2015 NASL Outlook

The 2014 NASL season saw the new postseason format, The Championship, the 2014 NASL season introduced the new postseason format, The Championship, and culminated in an exciting finish with the San Antonio Scorpions winning their first NASL title.

In 2015, it should be no different, as the two season winners (Spring and Fall) and the next two teams with the best overall records will compete for the right to lift the Soccer Bowl Trophy. The Spring Season consists of 10 games, and the clubs will play a total of 20 games in the Fall Season.

“Our competition format is a byproduct of the number of teams we have in the league at this time,” Commissioner Peterson said. “The schedule will balance out when we reach 16 or 17 teams, but in the meantime, we think the Spring Season will always be a dog fight and something that will be extremely fun for all of our fans to watch.”

The NASL will also welcome an expansion side, Jacksonville Armada FC. The club debuted in front of a Modern Era preseason record of 13,394 fans in a 3-1 win at EverBank Field over the Philadelphia Union. Bringing the number of competing clubs to 11, it will be the highest total since the relaunch in 2011.

“All of the matches will be hard,” said Armada FC coach, José Luis Villarreal. “We can never underestimate the opponent. I like watching our opponents a lot and I will be studying them prior to our matchups. But I put more emphasis on my own team and what they will be doing. I have a lot of respect for the NASL and what we are doing.”

The defending NASL Champions, the San Antonio Scorpions, clinched the Fall Championship in the final seconds against the New York Cosmos through an Adrian Cann tally in a 1-0 win. The club then went on to beat the Cosmos the following week in the semifinal and defeated the Fort Lauderdale Strikers at Toyota Field to win The Championship Final.

“From ownership, to stadiums, media attention and the addition of Jacksonville, the NASL has strengthened significantly in the offseason and I personally think it’s fantastic for the growth of our league,” said, Scorpions coach Alen Marcina. “As for us, we are establishing our short-term goals, we’re very focused on defending our NASL record-setting championship, we are building the culture of our club and we are dedicated to the long-term project here in San Antonio.”

Minnesota United FC was crowned the Spring Champion and will look to repeat their strong 2014 form. Having the reigning Golden Ball winner in United States Men’s National Team member Miguel Ibarra and Golden Boot winner Christian Ramirez, the Loons have only gotten stronger with offseason additions.

“We did some special things last year, but obviously didn’t achieve our ultimate goal,” United coach Manny Lagos said. “This year there is a focus on continuing to strive for trophies. We are excited about the pieces we have added and the quality roster we have returning. Ultimately the story this year will be told by how we approach the season and how things unfold on the field.”

2015 NASL Outlook

The competition has gotten stronger with each side adding key players for 2015.

The Cosmos, the 2013 Soccer Bowl winners, have added legendary Spanish forward Raúl, 2014 Best XI midfielder Walter Restrepo, and signed El Salvador captain Andres Flores, who was with the club on loan last season.

“We’re excited about the start of the 2015 season,” said Cosmos coach Giovanni Savarese. “The league continues to grow in quality every year and with the addition of Jacksonville, it’ll be an even bigger challenge for us.”

Along with Villarreal at Jacksonville, the Tampa Bay Rowdies, Atlanta Silverbacks, and Fort Lauderdale Strikers all have first-time NASL coaches at the helm.

The Rowdies have turned Al Lang Stadium into a more soccer-specific stadium, and have re-tooled the playing squad as well to fit coach Thomas Rongen’s aggressive, Total Football style of play.

“The 2015 season will be an exciting one for the Tampa Bay Rowdies,” said Rongen. “We’ve undergone a lot of change this offseason, but I’m proud of the team we’ve assembled.

“Our team will play a specific way. We will play aggressively with a little bit of bite. We want our opponents to know before each match that they’re in for a difficult night, especially at our home at Al Lang Stadium.”

Gary Smith returns to the U.S. after a coaching stint with Stevenage FC in England, as he takes charge of the Silverbacks. While Atlanta struggled in the league last season, they were one of two NASL sides to reach the quarterfinals of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. Smith is ready for the challenges ahead.

“I am extremely excited to be joining the Atlanta Silverbacks and the NASL,” Smith said. “Having spent three years away from the U.S. soccer scene, I’m looking forward to bringing a creative and fresh mindset to challenge the talented and competitive teams that already exist in this league.”

Marcelo Neveleff, coach of the Strikers, has prior experience in one of South America's most prestigious tournaments. He believes the NASL is a lot like the Copa Libertadores.

Neveleff explained: "When you play in Copa Libertadores, you play against a lot of international teams but players from all over the continent. I think this league, the NASL, is kind of the same thing. You have all the teams you play from Canada and the U.S. with all of the international players that the teams are signing."

Colin Miller, coach of FC Edmonton, believes this could be the most competitive season ever in the NASL Modern Era. The Eddies finished sixth overall a year ago but a mere three points from a postseason berth.

"This could possibly be the most challenging NASL season since my involvement with FC Edmonton," Miller noted. "Every team has shown improvement and ambition in this offseason, and we at FC Edmonton, are no different.

"I'm very excited by the signings that I'm seeing around the league and the coaching staff that has come in - it speaks very highly for the standards of our league. Every soccer fan of the NASL should be very excited for the season to come."

The Carolina RailHawks also reached the quarterfinals of the Open Cup and narrowly missed out on a postseason berth in 2014. While the schedule will include a bye week in the Spring Season and multiple midweek games in the Fall Season, head coach Colin Clarke is ready for the season.

"With more teams it means a couple of bye weeks which will be a little different for everybody as well as some midweek games," said Clarke. "Overall I think it is a good schedule from our point of view, and I am looking forward to it."

Indy Eleven and Ottawa Fury FC were both newcomers to the NASL in 2014, and both will take lessons learned into the upcoming season.

"Last year was certainly a learning experience for everyone at Indy Eleven, and we were perhaps caught off guard with just how high the level of play was in the NASL across the board early on," Indy Eleven coach Juergen Sommer said. "But we upgraded the roster throughout the year and the group became more cohesive, and that bore itself out in the results we earned in September and October."

Fury FC coach Marc Dos Santos added: "In the NASL every point is important – there are no easy games. As a team we matured a lot in 2014 and we've brought back an important core and filled in our squad with talented players that are hungry to win."

The NASL features the most teams competing since 1983. With the second year of The Championship, and the arrival of the Jacksonville Armada FC as well, the upcoming season should provide even more excitement and build on what the league has accomplished in the past four seasons.

"I can't wait for the start of the 2015 Fall Season, opening with Fourth of July fireworks and ending with a bang in early November," Peterson said. "The last two fall seasons have gone down to the wire, and I suspect it won't be any different in 2015."

The Atlanta Silverbacks will have a new direction in 2015 and under Gary Smith's leadership the club will look to get back to a title game, as they did in 2013. Having most recently coached in England, Smith has utilized those contacts to bring in players such as defenders Paul Black and Simon Mensing. The club has also added several NASL and most notably former Best XI selection Hans Denissen. The first-year head coach knows exactly what he wants the Silverbacks to look like when the season starts.

"The teams I have coached have always been technically efficient, well balanced, with pace, athleticism and creation in attacking areas of the pitch," said Smith. "And when things get tough, they have resolve and strength in character. I have no fear we will be in good shape for April 4."

The Carolina RailHawks narrowly missed out on the postseason last year finishing two points adrift of the final spot in The Championship.

Bringing back attacking players Nacho Novo and Tiyiselani Shipalane, the RailHawks have also added several NASL veterans to compete in 2015. Mark Anderson, Simone Bracalello, and Neil Hlavaty will bring valuable experience to the club, particularly since all three have played in a NASL title game in the past.

“With more teams it means a couple of bye weeks which will be a little different for everybody as well as some midweek games,” said RailHawks coach, Colin Clarke. “Overall I think it is a good schedule from our point of view, and I am looking forward to it.”

Another club that narrowly missed out on a chance to compete in The Championship, FC Edmonton has bolstered their roster heading into the 2015 season. With Oskar Hauksson and Sainey Nyassi, the club has added more firepower to go along with NASL Best XI midfielder Lance Laing. With an already stout defense, the Eddies will look to secure a postseason berth this season.

“This could possibly be the most challenging NASL season since my involvement with FC Edmonton,” FC Edmonton coach, Colin Miller said. “Every team has shown improvement and ambition this offseason, and we at FC Edmonton are no different.

“I’m very excited by the signings that I’m seeing around the league and the coaching staffs that have come in - it speaks very highly for the standards of our league. Every soccer fan of the NASL should be very excited for the season to come.”

The Fort Lauderdale Strikers finished 2014 as the NASL's hottest club. With a seven-game unbeaten streak to close out the Fall Season, the Strikers clinched the final postseason spot and ultimately finished as runners-up.

With a new head coach, Marcelo Neveleff, and several new faces in the squad, the Strikers will look to get back to The Championship Final.

“The expectation is to put together a good team, a good product on the field, and to do well,” said Neveleff. “Last year the Strikers got to the final. It will be hard to achieve the same things, but that’s the challenge. That’s what we’re looking forward to.”

After a sellout in every home game at Michael A. Carroll Stadium during their inaugural season, Indy Eleven will look to add a few more home wins and improve on their ninth-place finish in the combined standings. The club returned the core from a season ago but has bolstered the squad in the attacking areas with Osman Melgares and Jamaican international Brian Brown. NASL veteran Greg Janicki, who lifted the Soccer Bowl trophy in 2014 with San Antonio, will add leadership while strengthening the backline.

"We're excited to feed off that momentum, and the return of a core group of a dozen or so players will help, including pretty much the entire backline that really came on strong at the end of 2014," said Indy Eleven coach, Juergen Sommer. "We'll have a lot of new faces in the attack, so if we can blend them in quickly and feed off the energy of the best fans in the NASL, I'm confident Indy Eleven will be in the mix for a spot in The Championship right off the bat in 2015."

Launched in January 2013, Jacksonville Armada FC will kick off its inaugural season on April 4. The club's official name was unveiled on February 18, 2014 at Jacksonville Landing.

Under the helm of co-coaches Jose Luis Villarreal and Guillermo Hoyos, Armada FC has added a mix of local and experienced talent from around the NASL such as Jemal Johnson, who was a member of the New York Cosmos championship winning squad in 2013.

Also players with vast experience have joined as well. Marcos Flores recently played for Australian A-League side Newcastle Jets, Alhassane Keita, whose most notable accomplishments occurred at FC Zurich, and Jaime Castrillón, who has played for Independiente, should all make an impact straightaway in their first season in the NASL.

"I want a team that is dynamic," Villarreal said. "Our playing style is heavily focused on attacking our opponents. But also, we want to take precautions and always defend. I want a short style of play where my team will move in blocks. We definitely have to work hard, and that's what we are doing."

Minnesota United FC had a largely successful season in 2014. The club won the Spring Season and won a host of individual awards at the end of the year.

The Loons will look to build off that success to lift the Soccer Bowl trophy in 2015. With U.S. Men's National Team player Miguel Ibarra and the reigning NASL Golden Boot winner Christian Ramirez, the club shouldn't be lacking in firepower. Minnesota United FC also added key players like J.C. Banks, Jonny Steele, Kalif Alhassan, and Ibson.

"We did some special things last year, but obviously didn't achieve our ultimate goal," said United coach, Manny Lagos. "This year there is a focus on continuing to strive for trophies. To do that, we have to both embrace some of the good things we did last year and improve on some of the areas where we could have done better."

The New York Cosmos were unable to defend their title in 2014 after losing to the eventual champions, the San Antonio Scorpions, in the semifinals.

The club will return important players, as they push to return to the pinnacle of the NASL. Marcos Senna, Danny Szetela, and the club's leading goalscorer, Mads Stokkelien, will all be back for the upcoming campaign. The Cosmos also added several vital offseason additions: Adam Moffat, NASL Best XI midfielder Walter Restrepo, and Spanish legend Raúl.

"We're excited about the start of the 2015 season," said Cosmos coach, Giovanni Savarese. "The league continues to grow in quality every year and with the addition of Jacksonville, it'll be an even bigger challenge for us."

Ottawa Fury FC enters its second season in the NASL seeking to build off their eighth place finish in the combined standings a year ago. The club has brought back a strong core from 2014 but has added several veterans to the roster in 2015. NASL veterans such as Rafael Alves and Mike Randolph will bolster the defense, while Paulo Junior and NASL newcomer Andrew Wiedeman will add more firepower in the final third.

“In the NASL every point is important – there are no easy games,” said Fury FC coach, Marc Dos Santos. “As a team we matured a lot in 2014 and we’ve brought back an important core and filled in our squad with talented players that are hungry to win.

“Every NASL team has made significant changes to their squad, but we are confident that we have the depth, experience, and talent to not just compete every game but have a chance to win every night.”

The San Antonio Scorpions captured the 2014 Fall Season title with a last-gasp goal by Adrian Cann, and then followed that up with their first-ever NASL Championship.

In Alen Marcina's first full season as head coach, the Scorpions were the first to win the title in the NASL's new postseason format, defeating the Fort Lauderdale Strikers, 2-1.

Many of the players that were key contributors will return such as The Championship goalscorers Billy Forbes and Rafael Castillo, while the club welcomes the additions of former Colombian youth internationals Eduar Zea and Cristian Palomeque.

"From ownership, to stadiums, media attention, and the addition of Jacksonville, the NASL has strengthened significantly in the offseason, and I personally think it's fantastic for the growth of our league," Marcina said. "As for us, we are establishing our short-term goals, we're very focused on defending our NASL record-setting championship, we are building the culture of our club and we are dedicated to the long-term project here in San Antonio."

The Tampa Bay Rowdies will have a fresh look in 2015. With a new coach, Thomas Rongen, at the helm, the club has brought in several new faces to the roster as well to play in the renovated Al Lang Stadium.

The club has bolstered its backline with Gale Agbossoumonde, Brad Rusin, and Darnell King among others. In the midfield, the Rowdies should see a more aggressive side, fitting into Rongen's Total Football philosophy with Juan Guerra and Marcelo Saragosa in the middle of the park.

"The 2015 season will be an exciting one for the Tampa Bay Rowdies," Rongen said. "We've undergone a lot of change this offseason, but I'm proud of the team we've assembled. We have a strong mix of experienced players plus plenty of youth and energy.

"Our team will play a specific way. We will play aggressively with a little bit of bite. We want our opponents to know before each match that they're in for a difficult night, especially at our home at Al Lang Stadium. It's a long season, but I believe in everything we're doing to prepare ourselves to achieve great things together."

Media Information

2015 NASL Media Guide

Media Guidelines & Regulations

NASL PR Staff Members and Team PR Staff Members must ensure that all working conditions are harmonious and a balance is struck between the needs of the media (as representatives of the fans and the public) and the needs of the clubs.

Game Notes: Teams will provide games notes to media members on the day of a match to provide them with all of the relevant information regarding the upcoming matchup.

Media Credentials: All Teams must print and distribute media credentials to all designated media members that will be working within the grounds of the Host Stadium. Each team should print both single-game or season-long media credentials. Photographers and/or videographers must be attached to a legitimate media organization to acquire credentials. All Teams must provide colored bibs for Still Photographers and TV Broadcast Crew Members. The two groups should be wearing different colored bibs that are designated by each Team.

Press Box: The press box area is a neutral zone. Both home and visiting team personnel and media shall refrain from yelling or cheering. Media must not wear Team apparel in the press box and are reminded to remain neutral when in areas made accessible by their credential. Media must not consume alcohol while in possession of a media credential and may not request autographs. Violators may be asked to leave the Press Box area and/or have their credential privileges suspended or revoked.

Locker Rooms: Team locker rooms will not be open to media members at any time before, during, and after every match. The Home and Away Team training/treatment areas and referee locker rooms are also strictly off limits to all members of the media. All regulations regarding media access to the locker rooms should be clearly communicated to Team Staff and Security Personnel to ensure a secure environment. TV Broadcast Crew Members may film inside the locker rooms prior to the Team's arrival, but only after coordinating with Home Team and Visiting Team PR Staff Members. No interviews of any kind will be allowed inside the locker rooms.

Stadium Access: Credentialed media members will have access to the stadium, professional workrooms, stadium seating, and post-match media activities. During the match, all credentialed media will have access to the press box, which will be regulated by Home Team PR Staff Members. In addition, all accredited media members should be given a seat in the press box if possible.

Media Guidelines & Regulations

Traveling Media: The Home Team shall provide press box seating for traveling media members at each game and should keep in mind the needs of media members traveling from the Visiting Team's area.

Media Access to Training Sessions: If a training session is declared a closed session, Teams must allow media a minimum of 15 minutes for interviews after practice.

Home Team PR Staff Responsibilities: The Home Team PR Staff Members will be in attendance on game day in order to attend to working media members before, during, and after the match.

Statistics Crew: Statistical information such as box score and updated league standings etc. in the press box or in a location with a good view of the match.

Still Photography: Still photographers, with the proper bib, are permitted to shoot matches in areas specifically designated by the Home Team. If a Home and/or Visiting Team PR Staff has a specific Team Photographer at the match, then those individuals will wear a different color bib to indicate that they can be granted special access to any stadium level as long as they do not obstruct the view of spectators, security personnel, medical officials, and emergency exits. At no time are photographers allowed on the field of play.

Interview Area: The Home Team PR Director will designate a suitable postgame interview area on or near the field of play. This area shall be equipped with a team/sponsor backdrop to create a 'Coaches TV Area' where interviews may be conducted. Home and Visiting Team PR Staff are responsible for bringing their own coach and players to the Coaches TV Area upon the conclusion of the game. Locker rooms at all NASL venues are closed to all media.

Player Interviews: Players giving interviews that have played a significant role in the outcome of the match and will be selected at the PR Director's discretion. Media may request a specific player, and the Team PR Directors will dictate the length of the interview. Additional post match interviews for coaches and players can be done in the designated media mixed zone area, which is between the locker room and the team buses at the venue.

Official Interviews: The NASL Commissioner and Team Owners may be made available for interviews to media at the discretion of the Home and Visiting PR Directors and following consultation with the League PR Director. Game Officials will not be available for interviews and the Officials Locker Room remains off limits to all media.

US Soccer Federation

United States Soccer Federation - Founded: 1913

FIFA Affiliated: 1914. CONCACAF Affiliated: 1961

As the governing body of soccer in all its forms in the United States, U.S. Soccer has played an integral part in charting the course for the sport in the USA for 100 years. In that time, the Federation's mission statement has been clear and simple: to make soccer, in all its forms, a preeminent sport in the United States and to continue the development of soccer at all recreational and competitive levels.

In 1989, the U.S. Men's National Team had not played in a World Cup in 40 years and the U.S. Women's program was in its early stages. U.S. Soccer was playing games in small stadiums that did not reach capacity, few matches were televised, soccer-specific stadiums were yet to be created and there were no high-level professional outdoor leagues. Since that time, the state of U.S. Soccer has evolved significantly.

In 2014, U.S. MNT competed in its seventh consecutive FIFA World Cup and the team progressed to the Round-of-16 for the second straight event in Brazil.

U.S. Soccer is a world leader in women's soccer at every level, and the U.S. WNT has won two FIFA Women's World Cups and four Olympic Gold Medals – an accomplishment that no other country on the men's and women's side has reached in Olympic competition. The United States has also hosted three World Cups with the support of its members and strong organizational abilities.

From a coaching standpoint in the United States, more classes are continually being offered around the country, and the number of licensed, well-educated trainers and managers is larger than ever. The education level among coaches has been tailored to match the expanding pool of talent in the U.S.

U.S. Soccer continues to set positive trends for referees in CONCACAF, with reinvigorated focus on education and training, including the realm of professional referees. In 2012, the Professional Referee Organization (PRO) was created to manage the referee program in professional soccer leagues in the U.S. and Canada. The creation of PRO has been designed to increase the quality of officiating in U.S. and Canadian professional leagues, develop more professional quality officials at a younger age and develop officials who will represent the United States and Canada in FIFA competitions.

Participation in soccer continues at high levels among both youth and adults, with more than 4.3 million registered players among the 24 million participants in the sport, according to the FIFA Big Count.

For more information on all U.S. Soccer programs, visit the official organization website at ussoccer.com.

The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup

Since the league's re-launching, NASL teams have taken part in three consecutive editions of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups.

Played annually since 1914, the U.S. Open Cup is the oldest cup competition in the country and is a single elimination tournament and is open to all affiliated amateur and professional teams in the U.S.

The winner of the U.S. Open Cup qualifies as one of the four United States teams for the CONCACAF Champions League.

Coming into their fourth year at The Cup, the NASL teams have outscored their opposition 87 to 68 in 47 total games, while posting a 25-3-19 overall record along with 14 shutouts.

Canada Soccer Association

Canada Soccer Association

Founded: 1912

FIFA Affiliated: 1913

CONCACAF Affiliated: 1961

In Canada, the sport is governed by The Canadian Soccer Association (CSA), which was established in 1912. The CSA has 12 member associations (Canada's 10 provinces and two territories) and one associate member (Nunavut).

Soccer is the largest participation sport in Canada with 847,616 registered players and 20% of all Canadian youths participate. The CSA also has five National Training Centers – British Columbia, Prairies, Ontario, Quebec and Atlantic

There are 18,697 referees registered with their respective Provinces who officiate regularly on games sanctioned by Province Soccer Association including 37 National List Officials operating in professional soccer and 11 FIFA List officials operation in the international level.

Following its first qualification to a FIFA World Cup in Mexico 1986, Canada has gone on to stage four FIFA tournaments: 1987 FIFA U-17 World Cup, 2002 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup, 2007 FIFA U-20 World Cup, 2014 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup. It will host one more tournament at the women's level - FIFA Women's World Cup this year.

The CSA national teams have won nine confederation championships. Canada won the 1985 CONCACAF Men's Championship and the 2000 CONCACAF Gold Cup; Canada's women's team won the 1998 and 2010 CONCACAF women's championships. The men's youth team won the 1986 and 1996 CONCACAF Under-20 Championship while the women's youth team won the 2004 and 2008 CONCACAF Women's U-20 Championship along with the 2010 CONCACAF Women's U-17 Championship.

Amway Canadian Championship

The Amway Canadian Championship is the competition held annually since 2008 to crown the Canadian club champion.

Since 2014, two NASL sides compete along with MLS squads for the Canadian crown, which also doubles as qualifier into the CONCACAF Champions League.

After winning the first-leg (2-1) of the 2014 semifinal over the Montreal Impact, FC Edmonton were just seconds away from a berth to the Canadian Final despite trailing in the return-leg (3-2) over the defending champion. However, a penalty kick goal scored by the Impact on the last play of the match eliminated NASL side.

The winner of the 2015 Amway Canadian Championship will qualify for the 2016-2017 CONCACAF Champions League.

2014 Internationals

Minnesota United FC's Miguel Ibarra Called Up/Played For U.S. MNT In Last Four Months

Outside of league play, it was also a successful 2014 for many players on the international scene, where a total of 18 traded in their club jerseys to don the colors of their respective national teams.

Nine clubs provided NASL players for 12 countries that competed in Caribbean Cup and Central American Cup (CONCACAF Gold Cup qualifiers); Asian Cup qualifiers; as well as several international friendlies.

The NASL continues to shine internationally in early 2015 as Minnesota United FC's midfielder Miguel Ibarra once again wore the U.S. National Team jersey as the team topped Panama 2-0 victory in a friendly this past February.

SOCCKER BOWL HISTORY

The Championship

Golden Years

Following the creation of the North American Soccer League (NASL) in 1968, the league's championship game was initially known as the NASL Final until 1974.

The Atlanta Chiefs, Dallas Tornado, Los Angeles Aztecs, New York Cosmos, Philadelphia Atoms, and Rochester Lancers were crowned champions after winning their respective NASL Finals, which were composed of either a single game, home-and-away playoff, or best-of-three series. The exception was in 1969 when a championship game didn't even take place, and the Kansas City Spurs were crowned the league winners after amassing the highest regular season point total.

The NASL also recognized the two champions from 1967 – NPSL's Oakland Clippers and USA's Los Angeles Wolves - prior to the league's formation.

Soccer Bowl

The origin of the NASL Soccer Bowl began in 1975 when Commissioner Phil Woosnam sought a neutral-site championship event similar to the NFL Super Bowl.

Unlike the Super Bowl, the Soccer Bowl was not denoted by Roman numerals, instead, the last digits of the year would be used to brand the competition for that year (example: Soccer Bowl '75).

In 1984, the league changed the neutral-site format to a best-of-three series played at each team's home field. That year the event was promoted as the Soccer Bowl Series '84, though it was still generally acknowledged as the Soccer Bowl.

The Tampa Bay Rowdies were the first team to lift the Soccer Bowl trophy in 1975 when they defeated the Portland Timbers, 2-0, at San Jose's Spartan Stadium.

Former Portuguese striker Eusébio led the Toronto Metros-Croatia to the Soccer Bowl in 1976 to become the first Canadian side to win a NASL Championship. The following year, Brazilian forward and three-time World Cup winner, Pelé, concluded his playing career by leading the New York Cosmos to their first Soccer Bowl victory, posting a 2-1 win over the Seattle Sounders at Portland's Civic Stadium.

The Cosmos would repeat as champions in front of a record crowd of 74,091 at Giants Stadium, defeating the Rowdies, 3-1, for the Soccer Bowl '78 crown.

Giants Stadium would once again serve as the stage for the Soccer Bowl in 1979. The Vancouver Whitecaps became the second Canadian team to win a NASL Championship after defeating the Rowdies, 2-1.

The Cosmos reclaimed the Soccer Bowl Trophy the following year in 1980 after a 3-0 blanking of the Fort Lauderdale Strikers at Washington, D.C.'s RFK Stadium.

After losing the 1981 title to the Chicago Sting at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium, the Cosmos captured their fourth Soccer Bowl and fifth overall NASL Championship the following year with a 1-0 shutout win over the Seattle Sounders at San Diego Stadium.

Vancouver became the second Canadian city to host the Soccer Bowl, as the Tulsa Roughnecks topped the Toronto Blizzard, 2-0, to claim the 1983 title at BC Place Stadium.

The Soccer Bowl format then changed from a single-match to a best-of-three series. The Sting won their second league title by defeating the Blizzard in the first two matches, at Chicago's Comiskey Park and Toronto's Varsity Stadium, for the 1984 championship.

SOCCER BOWL HISTORY

Modern Era

With the relaunch of the NASL in 2011, the NSC Minnesota Stars (now Minnesota United FC) and Tampa Bay Rowdies were crowned as the first two champions in 2011 and 2012, respectively. Playing the final over two legs, Minnesota overcame the Fort Lauderdale Strikers in 2011 and then lost to the Rowdies in penalty kicks in 2012.

In 2013, the NASL Final was held as a single match for the first time since 1983. Under the new split-season competition format, the game featured the two season winners (Spring, Fall). The Fall Season Champions, the New York Cosmos, captured their sixth overall title by defeating the Spring Season Champions, the Atlanta Silverbacks, 1-0, at Atlanta Silverbacks Park.

The Championship, the league's four-team postseason tournament introduced in 2014, consisted of the season winners (Spring – Minnesota United FC, Fall – San Antonio Scorpions) along with the two teams with the best overall records (Cosmos, Strikers). The Scorpions captured their first Soccer Bowl trophy after defeating the Strikers, 2-1, at their home ground, Toyota Field, in The Championship Final.

The Soccer Bowl trophy is the third oldest men's professional outdoor soccer prize in the United States.
