Bowl Season is the collective coalition of the 44 bowl games played in the traditional college football postseason. Dubbed “A Celebration of College Football,” Bowl Season promotes the grand tradition of the bowl system and its endearing value to student-athletes. It also highlights the broader university and college communities, including spirit squads, marching bands, athletic staff and fans. A nonprofit, Bowl Season spotlights the distinctiveness of each of the bowl games along with their histories and traditions, embracing and honoring the bowl experience for present and future generations.

Nick Carparelli, Executive Director, Bowl Season

Nick Carparelli serves as Executive Director of Bowl Season, an appointment announced in December 2019. Widely respected in college football, he brings nearly 30 years of senior leadership in athletics with proven success in university athletic departments, bowl administration, a conference office, a professional sports franchise and a major athletic apparel brand.

In his role with Bowl Season, he oversees operations and direction for the organization that will grow to 43 postseason college football games starting with the 2020-21 season. He is responsible for effectively advancing the Bowl Season's mission and position, supporting bowl game membership, developing new revenue streams, and enhancing industry relationships with the NCAA, conference commissioners, athletic directors, College Football Playoff and bowl staffs.

Carparelli recently spearheaded Bowl Season's rebrand with the tagline "A Celebration of College Football," embracing the grand tradition of the bowl system and its enduring value to student-athletes. Prior to joining Bowl Season, Carparelli served as Senior Director of College Sports at Under Armour, leading the brand's collegiate sports marketing efforts. He managed outfitting partnerships with schools and universities including Notre Dame, Auburn, St. John's, Navy and South Carolina while working closely with athletes, teams and leagues with the goal of growing the brand, creating demand and driving sales by delivering a powerful go-to-market strategy.

In his role, Carparelli was responsible for creating strategic marketing plans, leading a cross-functional team which included product categories, PR, media, digital/social media, retail marketing, events, creative and all distribution channel partners. Serving as the point person and lead negotiator, Carparelli helped Under Armour secure several new strategic partnerships including Wisconsin, UC Berkeley and UCLA - currently the largest footwear and apparel deal in the history of the NCAA.

Prior to joining Under Armour, Carparelli worked as Senior Associate Commissioner for the Big East Conference. He served as the conference's primary football administrator, overseeing operations, officiating, bowl relationships, television and scheduling. Carparelli also served as the conference's liaison with IMG Sports, the league's sponsorship and marketing partner. He chaired the NCAA Football Issues Committee, its postseason bowl licensing subcommittee and served as a member of the NCAA Rules Committee. While at the BIG EAST, Carparelli's annual work with the conference football schedule construction.

Before joining the BIG EAST, Carparelli served as Director of Operations for the New England Patriots during the team's first Super Bowl championship season. Working with legendary head coach Bill Belichick, Carparelli coordinated team travel, directed the club's summer training camp, managed player personnel and supervised game day operations. He also coordinated all aspects of the Patriots' participation in Super Bowl XXXVI, contributed to some of the highest-rated telecasts in college football history. Carparelli led the charge in the creation of the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium and in the establishment of the St. Petersburg Bowl now located in Tampa, FL.

Carparelli also served as a football administrator at Notre Dame prior to his time with the Patriots, where he coordinated all recruiting efforts, created travel and gameday itineraries and oversaw NCAA football compliance matters. He spent two years as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, where he helped the Orange to a win against Colorado in the 1993 Fiesta Bowl. Between Notre Dame and Syracuse, Carparelli assisted in the recruitment of several players who moved on to the NFL, including Donovan McNabb and Justin Tuck.

Originally from Cheshire, Connecticut, Carparelli is a 1990 graduate of Worcester Polytechnic Institute with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. He obtained his Master of Business Administration from Syracuse in 1994. Carparelli currently resides in Severna Park, Maryland with his two sons Nicholas III and Michael.

Bowl Notes:

The Myrtle Beach Bowl and SoFi Bowl (Los Angeles) are in their inaugural season in 2020. The Fenway Bowl (Boston) will make its debut in 2021.

The Myrtle Beach Bowl is the first NCAA-sanctioned bowl to be played in the state of South Carolina.

The Myrtle Beach Bowl is being played at Brooks Stadium on the campus of Coastal Carolina in Conway, S.C. It is one of six bowls played on college campus, including the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl (Boise State), Boca Raton Bowl (FAU), New Mexico Bowl (New Mexico), First Responder Bowl (SMU), Military Bowl (Naval Academy). Three other bowls are played in college stadiums, but those venues are not on campus. They include the Birmingham Bowl (UAB), Alamo Bowl (UTSA) and Rose Bowl (UCLA).

Brooks Stadium has a unique feature that only a handful of other stadiums can claim. The venue is one of eight stadiums that do not feature green turf. Brooks Stadium uses teal colored turf, which is the primary color of Coastal Carolina. The list includes Albertson's Stadium (Boise State; blue turf), Brooks Stadium (Coastal Carolina; teal), Carlson Stadium (Luther College; blue), Estes Stadium (Central Arkansas; purple and gray), Lindenwood Stadium (Lindenwood College; red and gray), Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium (New Haven; blue), Roos Field (Eastern Washington; red) and Rynearson Stadium (Eastern Michigan; gray).

There was a proliferation of postseason benefit games specially scheduled at the conclusion of the regular season during the Great Depression (principally in 1931) to raise money for relief of the unemployed in response to the President's Committee on Mobilization of Relief Resources and for other charitable causes. The exact number of these games is unknown, but it is estimated that more than 100 college games were played nationwide during this period, often irrespective of the competing teams' records.

South Carolina hosted one of those games on Columbia on Dec. 5, 1931. Centre College defeated the Gamecocks, 9-7.

The state of South Carolina has hosted a number of non-sanctioned NCAA bowl games from 1946-1974. The list includes the Pecan Bowl (Orangeburg; 1946-47); Iodine Bowl (Charleston; 1949-51, 1953); Peninsula Bowl (Charleston, 1950); Palmetto Shrine Bowl (Columbia, 1950) and Textile Bowl (Spartanburg, 1974).

Other Trivia:

- The hometown Boise State team played its first-ever Division I bowl game on its home

Bronco Stadium turf in the bowl's third game in 1999, taking a 34-31 win over Louisville

- In the 19-year history of the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, no team has ever scored under double digits. The lowest point total for any team is 10 by Tulsa in 2004. Every other winning and losing team has scored at least 16 points.

- Boise State enters the 2019 season with a home record of 113-9 since 2000, the best such record in the nation since the turn of the century.

Memorable Games:

- 1998: Idaho, returning to the blue turf after upsetting Boise State five weeks earlier, fell behind 21-7 as a 16-point underdog, but rallied behind quarterback John Welsh's four touchdown passes to take a 42-35 win over Southern Miss.
- 2004: Fresno State's Paul Pinegar threw a three-yard touchdown pass to Jaron Fairman on fourth down with 0:11 left to force overtime and then threw a winning pass to seldom-used tight end Stephen Spach for a 37-34 OT win over Virginia.
- 2005: Hometown Boise State came in with a 31-game home winning streak, but Boston College controlled the first 40 minutes behind Matt Ryan's three TD passes and built a 27-0 lead. Boise rallied with three scores and was at the BC 5 in the final minute before Ryan Glasper's interception with 0:37 left locked up the win in Dan Hawkins' final game as Boise coach.
- 2009: An already high-scoring game featured five touchdowns in the final quarter, with Bowling Green taking a 42-35 lead with 0:32 left on a 51-yard Tyler Sheehan to Freddie Barnes pass. But Idaho QB Nate Enderle marched his team 66 yards in three plays for a tying score, and then threw a two-point pass to Preston Davis for the win.
- 2014: Ahead by just six points following a Western Michigan early fourth-quarter touchdown, Air Force capitalized on a 60-yard fumble recovery touchdown return by junior DB Dexter Walker with 9:52 remaining to seal the 38-24 victory.
- 2016: Idaho held off a tenacious Colorado State team, 61-50, in a record-setting affair. For just the third time in college football bowl history, both teams eclipsed the 600-yard mark, combining for 1,206 yards of high-flying offense -- and that was after a scoreless first quarter.

Top Individual Performers:

- Matt Linehan, QB, Idaho, 2016 -- Passed for 381 yards, scoring five touchdowns, one of which he ran in himself to hold off a relentless Colorado State attack in the Vandals' 61-50 win over the Rams.
- Kerwynn Williams, RB, Utah State, 2012 -- Scored three touchdowns in a span of less than four minutes in the fourth quarter, helping Utah State break open a close game and roll to a 41-15 win over Toledo. Williams fumbled to set up a Toledo field goal midway through the period and then scored on runs of 63, five and 25 yards in a 182-yard rushing effort.
- P. J. Daniels, RB, Georgia Tech, 2003 -- Capped his season by rushing for a bowl-record 307 yards and four touchdowns in the Yellow Jackets' 52-10 win over Tulsa.
- Bart Hendricks, QB, Boise State, 2000 -- Capped his Boise career by throwing a touchdown pass, rushing for two including a bowl-record 77-yard run, and catching a TD pass in the waning moments of Boise's 38-23 win over UTEP.
- Ryan Skinner, LB, Idaho, 1998 -- Helped the Vandals keep pace with Southern Miss by making a bowl-record 20 tackles.
- Freddie Barnes, WR, and Tyler Sheehan, QB, Bowling Green, 2009 -- Barnes, the nation's leading receiver, set bowl marks with 17 catches, 219 yards and three TD's, and Sheehan threw for 387 yards and had 412 offensive yards, both bowl records, against Idaho.
- Woody Dantzler, QB, Clemson, 2001 -- Threw for 218 yards and four touchdowns and ran for 57 more, triggering a 548-yard outburst in the Tigers' 49-24 win

Famous Idaho Potato Bowl

over Louisiana Tech

Last Year's Game:

Ohio quarterback Nathan Rourke rushed for 87 yards and a touchdown and added 144 yards through the air to lead the Bobcats to a 30-21 victory over Nevada in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Albertsons Stadium on January 3, 2020.

Rourke was named the game's Most Valuable Player as Ohio (7-6) won a bowl game for the third-straight season. De'Montre Tuggle added 97 yards and a touchdown on the ground as the Bobcats racked up 285 yards rushing.

Ohio built a 30-9 lead after three quarters and withstood a comeback attempt by the Wolf Pack (7-6). Ilyaas Motley's breakup of a fourth-down pass with 1:47 left sealed the victory for the Bobcats.

Each team scored on its opening possession. The Wolf Pack drove 46 yards before Brandon Talton nailed a 51-yard field goal to set a Nevada bowl record and tie the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl standard.

Ohio answered with a 10-play, 65-yard march that included nine rushes and one incomplete pass. Louie Zervos connected on a 29-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3.

The Bobcats took a 10-3 advantage when Julian Ross capped a 15-play, 71-yard drive with a 12-yard run at the 12:28 mark of the second quarter. The touchdown gave the Bobcats a lead they did not relinquish.

After a Nevada field goal, Ohio struck quickly. The Bobcats moved 77 yards in three plays and used just 54 seconds off the clock and went up 17-6 on a 35-yard scamper by Rourke.

Ohio's Louis Zervos and Nevada's Brandon Talton exchanged 33-yard field goals to make the score 20-9 at halftime.

The Bobcats drove 66 yards on the opening drive of the second half and Zervos hit a 26-yard field goal to stretch the lead to 23-9. Tuggle added a 2-yard run with 5:26 remaining in the third quarter to put Ohio up by three scores.

Nevada cut into the lead with 10:48 left in the game on an 8-yard touchdown pass from Carson Strong to Elijah Cooks. Strong finished 31-for-49 for 402 yards and the one score while Cooks hauled in 14 receptions for 197 yards.

After the score by Cooks, the Wolf Pack had the extra point blocked, but got the ball back when Dom Peterson sacked Rourke and Sam Hammond returned the fumble to Ohio 21 with 9:39 to play.

Toa Taua gained 19 yards on a run and Devonte Lee scored two plays later to trim Nevada's deficit to 30-21 with 8:42 left.

After an Ohio punt, Nevada drove from its 20 to the Bobcats' 6 before a fumble on botched reverse gave the ball back to Ohio. The Wolf Pack forced a three-and-out and marched to the Ohio 9 prior to turning the ball over on downs.

Memorable Games:

- 2019: FAU was led by defensive coordinator Glenn Spencer, who was named interim coach for the bowl game after Lane Kiffin was announced the new head coach at Ole Miss. FAU (11-3) was down a few starters in addition to their head coach, but still managed to dominate SMU (10-3) with a final score of 52-28 in the sixth annual bowl game
- 2017: In a matchup of head coaches with notable family ties, Lane Kiffin and his Florida Atlantic Owls topped Terry Bowden's Akron Zips, 50-3. The victory gave Florida Atlantic a 10-game win streak to close out its first season under Kiffin.
- 2016: A battle between two of the nation's top-ranked offenses resulted in the expected fireworks with combined totals of 82 points, 56 first downs and nearly 1,100 total yards. Offensive MVP Anthony Wales had 245 yards rushing for WKU and both teams'quarterbacks finished with well over 300 passing yards.
- 2015: Toledo's senior quarterback and offensive MVP Phillip Ely rallied the Rockets in the fourth quarter to clinch a 32-17 win over No. 24 Temple. Ely completed 20-of-28 pass attempts for 285 yards and two touchdowns.
- 2014: Marshall quarterback Rakeem Cato threw a touchdown pass in his 46th consecutive game, tying an NCAA record, and had two other scoring passes in leading the Thundering Herd to a 52-23 win over Northern Illinois in the inaugural game.

Top Individual Performances:

- Chris Robinson, QB, Florida Atlantic, 2019 - Set a Cheribundi Boca Raton Bowl record with 27 completions (in 37 attempts) for 305 yards and two touchdowns.
- Devin Singletary, RB, Florida Atlantic, 2017- Recorded three touchdowns for a total of 32 rushing scores on the season, a Conference USA single-season record.
- Anthony Wales, RB, Western Kentucky, 2016 -- Set Boca Raton Bowl records with 245 rushing yards and three TDs.
- Riley Ferguson, QB, Memphis, 2016 -- Threw for a new Boca Raton Bowl record four TDs and 372 yards. Phillip Ely, QB, Toledo, 2015 -- Threw for 285 yards and two touchdowns in a game-long driving rainstorm.
- Tommy Shuler, WR, Marshall, 2014 -- Caught 18 passes, tying for the third-most in NCAA bowl history, for 185 yards and a touchdown. Shuler broke Conference USA's record for career catches with 322.
- Rakeem Cato, QB, Marshall, 2014 -- Capped a record-setting career with three touchdown passes for 281 yards and two rushing TDs. Cato extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass to 46, tying the NCAA all-division record.

Last Year's Game:

Florida Atlantic scored twice in the final minute of the first half to take a 28-14 lead. It never relinquished en route to a 52-28 victory over SMU in the 6th annual Cheribundi Boca Raton Bowl.

After SMU (10-3) tied the game at 14 on Xavier Jones' one-yard run with 2:12 remaining in the half, FAU swiftly moved 75 yards in seven plays, capped off by a James Charles 15-yard touchdown run at the one-minute mark. On the first play after the ensuing kickoff, Shane Buechele's pass was intercepted by defensive MVP Rashad Smith (11 tackles, and a fumble recovery to go with the interception) at the SMU 35 and returned to the 13-yard line. Offensive MVP Chris Robison's 13-yard pass to Brandon Robinson on the next play gave the Owls the two-score lead heading into the locker room.

FAU added two touchdowns in the third quarter, while holding SMU scoreless and entered the final quarter with an insurmountable 42-14 lead.

Robison set a Cheribundi Boca Raton Bowl record with 27 completions (in 37 attempts) for 305 yards and two touchdowns. Charles added two scores on the ground. FAU tied the bowl record with its 52 points and the combined 80 points were the second most in the bowl's history. FAU punter Matt Hayball, the game's special teams MVP, set a bowl record with a 48-yard average on five punts.

SMU quarterback Shane Buechele also completed 27 passes and threw for over 300 yards (27-47 for 303) while wide receiver James Proche caught nine passes for 86 yards and a touchdown.

FAU was led by defensive coordinator Glenn Spencer, who was named interim coach after Lane Kiffin became the head coach at Ole Miss. The Owls finished the season 11-3, matching the best record in school history, achieved previously in 2017 when they also ended the season with a Boca Raton Bowl victory. 24-10 lead. The Huskies cut it to 27-13 early in the third, but a little over two minutes later, Johnston found Ubosi down the sideline for his third score. Nick Vogel kicked three field goals for UAB.

Memorable Games:

2014: In front of a R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl record crowd of 54,728, UL Lafayette hung on to win the 24-21 matchup against hometown Tulane Green Wave after 2012 Lou Groza Award winner Cairo Santos missed a 48-yard field goal with 13 seconds left that would have forced overtime.

2011: UL Lafayette 32, San Diego State 30 -- The Ragin' Cajuns win their first-ever Division I bowl outing, with Brett Baer's 50-yard field goal on the game's final play the difference maker. The Aztecs had scored what appeared to be a game-winning touchdown with 35 seconds left that made it 30-29, but missed a two-point conversion and UL drove to the winning field goal.

2008: Southern Mississippi 30, Troy 27 -- In the only overtime game in bowl history, USM got a field goal and Troy missed on its overtime opportunity as the Golden Eagles won their third New Orleans Bowl title.

2005: Southern Mississippi 31, Arkansas State 19 -- In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina and the damage to the Superdome, the New Orleans Bowl relocates operations to Lafayette, La., and plays at UL Lafayette's Cajun Field as USM wins in the only bowl game not played in the Superdome.

Top Individual Performances:

Allenzae Staggers, WR, Southern Miss, 2016 - had 11 receptions for 230 yards, both New Orleans Bowl records, leading Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over UL Lafayette

Kenneth Dixon, RB, LA TECH, 2015 – While accumulating 215 total yards and 4 touchdowns, Dixon capped an extraordinary career at Louisiana Tech by setting NCAA touchdown and scoring records.

Orleans Darkwa, RB, Tulane, 2013 – Ran for 83 yards on 16 carries and 3 touchdowns. Despite being Tulane being on the losing end of the bowl, Darkwa was named MVP by the New Orleans Bowl media.

Terrance Broadway, QB, UL Lafayette, 2012 -- Threw for 316 yards and ran for 108 more, scoring the game's first TD and throwing for the go-ahead score in the third period in leading the Ragin'Cajuns to a 43-34 win over East Carolina.

Blaine Gautier, QB, UL Lafayette, 2011 -- Threw for a bowl-record 470 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Ragin'Cajuns to a 32-30 win over San Diego State.

Dwight Dasher, QB, Middle Tennessee, 2009 -- Threw for 363 yards and two touchdowns and ran for two more scores in leading the Blue Raiders to a 42-32 win over Southern Miss.

Rusty Smith, QB, Florida Atlantic, 2007 – Throwing for 336 yards and 5 touchdowns, Smith led FAU squad of coach Howard Schnellenberger to a victory in the school's first-ever bowl appearance.

Michael Boley, LB, Southern Miss, 2004 -- Became one of only two defensive players to be named MVP when he had eight tackles.

Last Year's Game:

Appalachian State (App State) rallied from an early two-touchdown deficit to take a 31-17 victory over University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) in the 19th annual R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl on Saturday night in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Trey Cobb's 24-yard fumble return for a touchdown snapped a 17-all tie and keyed a 21-point third quarter for the Mountaineers (13-1), who ended the regular season ranked no. 20 in the College Football Playoff rankings and both major polls.

App State running back Darrynton Evans, voted the game's Most Valuable Player, set a New Orleans Bowl record for yards per carry (8.3), finishing with 157 yards on 19 attempts and a touchdown.

Evans' touchdown came on an unusual fourth-and-1 play on the opening series of the third quarter. With App State trailing 14-10, quarterback Zac Thomas tried to convert on a quarterback sneak, but the ball was knocked loose. Evans picked it up in the backfield and ran 31 yards for a touchdown, giving the Mountaineers their first lead of the night.

UAB tied the game at 17-all on a 49-yard field goal by Nick Vogel.

On the Blazers' next possession, Nick Hampton sacked quarterback Tyler Johnston, forcing a fumble that Cobb scooped up and ran down the west sideline for the go-ahead score.

App State made it a two-score game in the final minute of the third quarter when Thomas and Hennigan connected for their second touchdown, this time from 27 yards.

The Blazers (9-5) jumped to a 14-0 lead in the first five minutes behind its passing game. Tyler Johnston connected on 25-yard touchdown passes to Hayden Pittman and Austin Watkins.

"Our defense gave up two plays early," said App State Coach Shawn Clark, who was coaching in his first game after replacing Eliah Drinkwitz last week. "After that, they played lights out."

The Sun Belt Conference champions finally got on the board early in the second quarter on a 34-yard field goal by Chandler Staton, then closed within 14-10 on 17-yard pass from Zac Thomas to Thomas Hennigan.

Other Trivia:

- Two of the longest streaks in college football history ended in the second edition of the New Mexico Bowl in 2007. New Mexico's 23-0 win over Nevada gave the Lobos their first postseason victory in 46 years, which at the time was the sixth-longest drought in the country. But an even longer streak ended ... Nevada's shutout was its first since 1980, a span of 329 games which was the second-longest in collegiate history.
- The New Mexico Bowl is New Mexico's only annually nationally televised sporting event.
- The bowl is not the only championship football game ever played at University Stadium. In 1980, Cal Poly faced Eastern Illinois in the Division II national title game, which was hampered by snow. Helicopters had to be brought in to dry the field, which was painted green.
- Snow also hampered the New Mexico Bowl's inaugural contest in 2006, when the game and practice fields had to be snow-plowed so teams could practice and play
- The 15th annual New Mexico Bowl is scheduled to be played in Frisco, Texas due to Covid-19 restrictions in New Mexico.

Memorable Games:

2013: Colorado State 48, Washington State 45 -- Colorado State trailed by 22 points (35-13) before coming back to beat Washington State. That's tied for the second-largest deficit overcome to win a non-overtime bowl game in NCAA bowl history. It was also the second straight time that the winning team has scored at least 10 points in the final minute to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

2012: Arizona 49, Nevada 48 -- After the Wolf Pack had taken a seemingly safe 13-point lead with 1:48 left, the Wildcats drove 75 and 51 yards for touchdowns around a successful onside kick to take an improbable win. The two teams combined for 70 first downs and 1,237 offensive yards.

2009: Wyoming 35, Fresno State 28 (2OT) -- After a shocking 11-point comeback to tie the game in the fourth quarter, Wyoming's defense stopped Fresno State's Ryan Mathews -- one of the nation's top three rushers and a first-round NFL draft pick a few months later -- four times on the 1-yard line on the first possession of overtime.

2008: Colorado State 40, Fresno State 35 -- Colorado State's Gartrell Johnson clinched CSU's victory with a 77-yard touchdown run with just under two minutes remaining, the top of a big night in which Johnson ran for 285 yards.

2007: New Mexico 23, Nevada 0 -- The hometown Lobos ended one of the longest streaks in Division I history, winning a postseason game for the first time in 46 years in ending the nation's sixth-longest winless bowl streak.

Top Individual Performances:

Connor Halliday, QB, Washington State, 2013 -- Went 37-for-58 passing for 410 yards and six touchdowns, all New Mexico Bowl records. He tied the NCAA bowl record for touchdown passes and became the first quarterback in NCAA bowl history to throw for six touchdowns in a loss.

Gartrell Johnson, RB, Colorado State, 2008 -- Set an all-time FBS record for combined rushing and receiving yards in a postseason game with 375 total yards in the Rams' win over Fresno State. He had 285 yards rushing, the second-most ever in a bowl game behind only the 307 of Georgia Tech at the 2004 Humanitarian Bowl. Johnson had 97 yards in the first quarter alone.

Bernard Pierce, RB, and Brandon McManus, K, Temple, 2011 -- Pierce ran for two touchdowns in a 100-yard rushing performance, with his two scores in the game's first 16 minutes giving the Owls the lead for good. McManus then kicked three field goals in the final 17 minutes as Temple posted a 37-15 win over Wyoming.

Matt Scott, QB, Arizona, 2012 -- Scott passed for 382 yards and three touchdowns, two of those scores coming in the final 46 seconds to rally the Wildcats to a 49-48 victory over Nevada. Scott rallied Arizona back from a 17-0 early deficit along with the 13-point deficit in the final two minutes.

New Mexico Bowl

Last Year's Game:

Ryan Agnew passed for 287 yards and three touchdowns, Jesse Matthews caught three passes for 111 yards and two touchdowns and San Diego State won a bowl game for the first time since 2016, beating Central Michigan 48-11. Jordan Byrd ran for a career-high 139 yards and a touchdown to help the Aztecs (10-3) cap their 10th straight bowl appearance with a victory. The victory served as homecoming for Long. He last won the New Mexico Bowl in 2007 as New Mexico's coach. Long is 4-9 in bowl games and used to look at the field from his office. "It was real special to me because I have ties to this place," Long said.

>From media hotel to stadium:

(0.8 miles, approximately 2 minutes driving) Head east on Madison Ave., toward N. Lawrence St. for 0.8 miles and Cramton Bowl will be on the right.

Other Trivia:

-The Cramton Bowl has played host to major league and minor league baseball and plenty of football games. The stadium was the first in the South to play a football game under the lights, a night game pitting Cloverdale High against Pike Road High in 1927. That game drew more than 7,200 and helped prompt a seating expansion in 1929.

- The inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl took its toll on more than the players. South Alabama coach Joey Jones got banged up on the sidelines after USA tight end Ryan Onkka caught a ball and fell, his feet coming up and hitting Jones in the face and giving him a bloody nose. Later in the game, side judge Craig Falkner was hit in the right leg by a flying object and had to leave the game.

- The Blue-Gray Football Classic called the Cramton Bowl home during its existence, and the Alabama Crimson Tide played some home games at the stadium from 1922 to 1932 and in various years through 1954.

- The civil rights movement traces its beginnings to Montgomery and the Cramton Bowl area. In December 1955 Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat to a white man on a city bus, sparking a bus boycott. Ten years later in 1965, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., ended the Selma to Montgomery Civil Rights March at the Capitol steps, one block away from the only church and pulpit he ever ministered from.

-The Wright Brothers brought their aviation deeds to Montgomery in 1910, establishing the nation's first school for powered flight.

Other Trivia:

- Former Florida Gator defensive standout Thaddeus Bullard, aka as WWE Superstar Titus O'Neal, is Chairman of the Bowl Executive Committee
- UCF's Blake Bortles, who led UCF past Ball State in the 2012 game, became the highest drafted player ever to play in the Gasparilla Bowl when he was selected third overall in the 2014 NFL draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars.
- The inaugural bowl game was played on December 20, 2008 and featured nearby USF and Memphis. The Bulls won the game 41-14.
- Only two teams have played in the Gasparilla Bowl more than once. UCF has made three appearances (2009, 2012, 2014) and Marshall has played twice (2011, 2015).
- Vince "Invincible" Papale handled the coin toss and was the keynote speaker at the 2012 kickoff luncheon.
- The bowl game began playing at Raymond James Stadium in 2018. The game's original venue was Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg which was used from its inception in 2008 – 2017.

Memorable Games:

- 2008: The inaugural game featuring nearby USF saw the Bulls score on four of their first five possessions to record a dominating 40-14 win over Memphis.
- 2009: Rutgers scored touchdowns four different ways in defeating UCF 45-24. Those touchdowns came by rushing (one), passing (two), interception return (one) and the return of an attempted onside kick (one).
- 2010: Louisville's Charlie Strong led the Cardinals to a 31-28 win over Southern Miss in his first bowl game as a head coach.
- 2014: North Carolina State made the ACC's first appearance in the Gasparilla Bowl a successful one in taking a 34-27 win over American Athletic Conference co-champion UCF.
- 2016: Mississippi State made the SEC's first appearance in the Gasparilla Bowl and needed a blocked 37-yard field goal attempt with five seconds left in the game to secure a come-from-behind 17-16 victory over Miami (Ohio).

Top Individual Performances:

- Marlon Williams, WR, UCF 2019 – Caught 7 passes for 132 yards, including a 75 yard TD catch.
- Brenden Knox, RB, Marshall 2019 – Rushed for 103 yards on 26 carries. In the 2018 bowl game he rushed for 93 yards on 12 carries.
- Randall St. Felix, WR, USF 2018 – Caught six passes for 165 receiving yards, including two for touchdowns. He set new bowl records for receiving yards and yards-per-catch (27.5)
- Nick Fitzgerald, QB, Mississippi St. 2016 - First quarterback in Bowl history to rush for 100 or more yards in the game. His 142 rushing yards was the second-most by any player in the game.
- Vintavious Cooper, RB, East Carolina, 2013 -- Rushed for a bowl-record 198 yards on 25 carries including two touchdowns in leading ECU over Ohio 37-20.
- Blake Bortles, QB, UCF, 2012 -- Threw for 271 yards and three touchdowns, but also rushed for a career-high 80 yards in leading the Knights to an easy 38-17 win over Ball State. Bortles rushed for a six-yard score that helped UCF build a 21-point halftime lead.
- Aaron Dobson, WR, Marshall, 2011 -- Caught seven passes for 81 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Thundering Herd to a 20-10 win over FIU.
- Desmond Johnson, RB, Southern Miss, 2010 -- Rushed for 107 yards on 10 carries, including a 62-yard touchdown run, in a 31-28 loss to Louisville.
- Mohamed Sanu, WR, Rutgers, 2009 -- Caught four passes for 97 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 47 yards on 14 carries and two touchdowns in leading Rutgers to a 45-24 win over UCF.
- Matt Grothe, QB, USF, 2008 -- Completed 17- 24 passes for 236 yards and three TD's, and rushed for 83 yards on 15 carries in a 41-14 win over Memphis.

Last Year's Game:

Most Valuable Player freshman quarterback Dillon Gabriel passed for two touchdowns and ran for one more to lead UCF to a 48-25 victory over Marshall in the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl Monday afternoon at Raymond James Stadium.

Numerous records were set for the Gasparilla Bowl. UCF's 587 total yards marked a team-best figure, as did the Knights' 310 rushing yards. The 73 total points eclipsed the mark of 69 set back in the bowl game's second contest in 2009 (Rutgers 45, UCF 24).

Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl

Both UCF and Marshall were making their fourth appearance in the game, the most of any Gasparilla Bowl participants. UCF evened its mark at 2-2 in its four trips to the Tampa Bay area, while Marshall suffered its first loss following wins in 2011, 2015 and 2018

Other Trivia:

- The Orlando Sports Foundation saw its goal come to reality in 2015 and was the first college bowl game in history to donate a record-breaking amount of $1.15 million directly to a charity partner, the Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF) in one lump sum.
- The platform of the Cure Bowl has led to a three-year charitable donation of over $3.6 million to the Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF).
- Orlando is the only city that annually hosts three postseason college football bowl games – Cure Bowl, Camping World Bowl, Citrus Bowl.
- The inaugural 2015 AutoNation Cure Bowl was the first bowl game that CBS Sports Network produced in its history.
- The first NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) national radio broadcast featuring an all-female crew took over the airwaves for the 2019 FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl. The all-female crew included play-by-play voice Jamie She (Orlando, Fla.), color analyst Dani Welniak (Kansas City, Mo.) and sideline reporter Melanie Newman (Atlanta, Ga.).

2016	Kendall Sanders, WR, Arkansas State
2017	Conner Manning, QB, Georgia State
2018	Darius Bradwell, RB, Tulane
2019	Jessie Lemonier, DE, Liberty

Memorable Games:

2019: Liberty won their first bowl game in school history against Georgia Southern with a final score of 23-16. Liberty senior defensive end Jessie Lemonier helped stop the Eagles' triple-option attack by registering eight tackles and two sacks, leading him to be named the Most Valuable Player. To date, the FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl has been a platform to donate over $3.8 million towards its charity partner, the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

2018: Darius Bradford rushed for two touchdowns and 150 yards to receive MVP honors, leading Tulane to a 41-24 victory over Louisiana at the AutoNation Cure Bowl benefitting the Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF). Tulane set bowl records for net rushing yards (337) and total offensive yards (482). BCRF researcher Dr. Annette Khaled was presented with a check from BCRF representing a total of $1.1 million in grants that she received.

2017: Conner Manning tossed one touchdown and totaled 276 yards to earn MVP accolades and lead Georgia State over Western Kentucky, 27-17, in the AutoNation Cure Bowl benefitting the Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF). Georgia State earned its first bowl victory in school history. A check was presented to charity partner BCRF for $3.55 million, showcasing the three-year total donation.

2016: Kendall Sanders caught three touchdown passes and accumulated 127 yards to earn MVP honors, leading the Arkansas State over UCF, 31-13, in the AutoNation Cure Bowl presented by Florida Hospital. The game featuring the hometown Knights was played in front of a crowd of 27,213 at Camping World Stadium. AutoNation and Orlando Sports Foundation teamed up to present a charitable donation of $1.15 million to the Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF) at the end of the first quarter.

2015: Game sponsor AutoNation presented a $1 million check to the Breast Cancer Research Foundation following the end of the first quarter. At halftime, the Orlando Sports Foundation presented the BCRF with a check for $150,000. It is the largest donation ever made by a bowl game to a charitable cause. With players and coaches on both teams having been effected by cancer -- San Jose State safety Simon Connette lost his mother to the disease last spring and Carrizosa's mother is fighting it -- the game took on a special meaning.

Top Individual Performances:

Jessie Lemonier, DE, Liberty, 2019 – Registered eight tackles and two sacks at the fifth annual FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl leading the Liberty Flames to defeat the Georgia Southern Eagles 23-16.

Darius Bradwell, RB, Tulane, 2018 – Rushed for a bowl-record 150 yards on 35 carries and two touchdowns in the fourth annual AutoNation Cure Bowl. Bradwell sealed the game with a four-yard touchdown in the final four minutes to earn MVP honors.

Conner Manning, QB, Georgia State, 2017 – Threw for 276 yards and one touchdown in leading Georgia State to a 27-17 victory over Western Kentucky in the third annual AutoNation Cure Bowl. Manning also added 24 yards on the ground and connected with WR Tamir Jones for a 49-yard reception.

Kendall Sanders, WR, Arkansas State, 2016 – Caught touchdown passes of 75 yards, 17 yards and 12 yards to earn MVP honors in helping Arkansas State defeat UCF, 31-13, in the 2016 AutoNation Cure Bowl. Saunders finished with five receptions for 127 yards and three touchdowns.

Kenny Potter, QB, San Jose State, 2015 -- Scored on a 42-yard run and threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Josh Oliver in San Jose State's 27-16 comeback victory over Georgia State in the inaugural AutoNation Cure Bowl.

Last Year's Game:

The Liberty Flames won the 2019 FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl presented by the Orlando Sports Foundation, their first bowl victory in school history, by defeating the Georgia Southern Eagles 23-16 on Dec. 21 at Exploria Stadium. Liberty senior defensive end Jessie Lemonier was named the Most Valuable Player following the victory after helping stop the Eagles' triple-option attack by registering eight tackles and two sacks. The Liberty Flames accumulated 402 total yards, including 270 through the air by Stephen Calvert. Senior wide receiver Antonio Gandy-Golden caught a game-high five passes for 63 yards and one touchdown, while tight end Jordan Huntley recorded 90 yards. The difference in the game came down to the second half where the Liberty defense stepped up and

Other Trivia:

- The SERVPRO First Responder Bowl was known as the TicketCity Bowl in its first two years, then the Heart of Dallas Bowl for six years.
- ESPN manages the bowl game's media rights, sales and game-related activities and coordinates the conference school inventory.
- In its first three years, the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl developed a reputation for hosting wide-open offensive games. The three winning teams combined to throw for 1,272 yards (424.0 yards per game).
- In-state teams won the bowl in three of its first four years, with Texas Tech winning the inaugural game, Houston in 2012 and North Texas in 2014.
- The 2018 game became the first bowl game ever to be canceled due to severe weather. The game was ruled a no contest after weather issues halted the game. There was 5:08 left on the clock in the first quarter with Boston College leading 7-0 when the teams went to a delay. The game never resumed.

Memorable Games:

- 2010: Texas Tech jumped to a 22-point lead and led 38-17 late in the third quarter but had to hold on to take a 45-38 victory over Northwestern in the first-ever bowl. The Wildcats, trying to snap a string of seven straight bowl losses and a winless bowl streak dating back to 1949, got within a touchdown twice in the fourth quarter.
- 2011: Houston quarterback Case Keenum put on a first-quarter show and his teammates never let Penn State back into the game as the Cougars posted a 30-14 win over the Nittany Lions. Keenum, who entered the game as the NCAA's all-time career leader in scoring passes and passing yardage, threw for 227 yards in the game's first 15 minutes to set an all-time NCAA bowl record for pass yardage in a quarter. He finished 45-of-69 passing for 532 yards and three scores.
- 2012: Oklahoma State rolled up the most points ever scored in a bowl game at venerable Cotton Bowl Stadium, bolting out to a 45-0 lead by late in the third quarter and eventually taking a 58-14 victory over Purdue. The Cowboys forced five turnovers and rolled up 524 offensive yards along with five touchdown passes, three of them from starter Clint Chelf on the way to its biggest bowl win since the 1988 Holiday Bowl team routed Wyoming 62-14.
- 2018: The game between Boise State and Boston College was canceled due to severe weather and ruled a no contest. There was 5:08 left on the clock in the first quarter when the teams went to a delay. Boston College had a 7-0 lead when a lightning strike within eight miles of the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, the game site, caused the bowl to go into a 30-minute delay per NCAA rules. That delay extended with each successive lightning strike, and the teams and bowl reps eventually made the decision not to play. The decision to end the First Responder Bowl made it the first bowl game to be canceled because of weather.
- 2019: WKU true freshman Cory Munson nailed a career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to give the Hilltoppers a 23-20 victory over Western Michigan in the inaugural First Responder Bowl to be played at SMU's Ford Stadium. Munson's 31-yard field goal with 1:36 to play had made it 20-20. The Broncos had time to win it, drove downfield, but WMU quarterback Jon Wassink tripped for a 2-yard loss to force a fourth-and-3. WMU went for it, and Wassink's incompletion gave it back to WKU with 27 seconds remaining. With three seconds left and WKU facing a potential 57-yard kick by Munson to win it, WKU opted to toss a Hail Mary and risk overtime at worst. However, Western Michigan was flagged for too many men on that final play, allowing for an untimed down from five yards closer.

Top Individual Performances:

- Taylor Potts, QB, Texas Tech, 2011 -- Threw four touchdowns passes and scored another TD on a trick play in leading the Red Raiders to a 45-38 win over Northwestern in the inaugural bowl. Potts completed 43-of-56 passes for 369 yards and had a scoring pass in each quarter, and also scored himself on a 13-yard lateral back to him following a completion to Austin Zouzalik.
- Quentin Davie, LB, and Nate Williams, LB, Northwestern, 2011 -- In a losing effort, the two combined for 29 tackles, with Davie also recording a pair of sacks, in the Wildcats' 45-38 loss to Texas Tech.
- Case Keenum, QB, Houston, 2012 -- Became one of only nine quarterbacks in NCAA bowl history to pass for 500 or more yards, hitting 45-of-69 passes for 532 yards in leading the Cougars to a 30-14 victory over Penn State. Keenum passed for 227 yards in the first quarter alone, setting an all-time NCAA bowl record for passing yards in a quarter, and added to his NCAA all-time career numbers for passing yards and touchdown passes with his three scoring tosses.

SERVPRO First Responder Bowl

Patrick Edwards, WR, Houston, 2012 -- The Senior Bowl selection wrapped up his collegiate career in style, catching touchdown passes of 40 and 75 yards in the first half in guiding UH to a 30-14 victory over Penn State. Edwards finished with 228 receiving yards on 10 catches.

Clint Chelf, QB, Oklahoma State, 2013 -- Threw three of his team's five touchdown passes while hitting 17-of-22 passes for 197 yards and no interceptions, sparking the Cowboys to a runaway 58-14 victory over Purdue. Chelf had scoring throws of four and seven yards on OSU's second and third possessions and added a 37-yarder in the third quarter that built the lead to 45-0.

Myles Gaskin, RB, Washington, 2015 -- set a Heart of Dallas Bowl record with four touchdowns, and he added 181 yards on 26 carries.

Last Year's Game:

WKU true freshman Cory Munson nailed a career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to give the Hilltoppers a 23-20 victory over Western Michigan in the inaugural First Responder Bowl to be played at SMU's Ford Stadium.

Munson's 31-yard field goal with 1:36 to play had made it 20-20. The Broncos had time to win it, drove downfield, but WMU quarterback Jon Wassink tripped for a 2-yard loss to force a fourth-and-3. WMU went for it, and Wassink's incompletion gave it back to WKU with 27 seconds remaining. With three seconds left and WKU facing a potential 57-yard kick by Munson to win it, WKU opted to toss a Hail Mary and risk overtime at worst. However, Western Michigan was flagged for too many men on that final play, allowing for an untimed down from five yards closer.

Other Trivia:

- For six straight years, a head coach was hired away from a school playing in the bowl following the regular season and before the bowl game. Brady Hoke left Ball State for San Diego State in 2009, Butch Jones left Central Michigan for Cincinnati in 2010, Mike Haywood left Miami (Ohio) for Pittsburgh in 2011, and Hugh Freeze left Arkansas State for Mississippi in 2012. Darrell Hazell accepted the head job at Purdue but remained at Kent State until after the 2013 game, and two years ago Bryan Harsin left Arkansas State for Boise State prior to the bowl game.
- TCU's LaDainian Tomlinson played in the first two bowl games (then known as the Mobile Alabama Bowl). In those games, the former San Diego Chargers star had 64 carries for 242 yards and four touchdowns, including leading TCU to a 28-14 win over East Carolina in the bowl's inaugural game in 1999.
- Tulsa's 63-7 win over Bowling Green in 2008 is the largest margin of victory in Division I bowl history, topping the 55-point margin of Alabama over Syracuse in the 1953 Orange Bowl. During that game, Tulsa became the first team in NCAA history with a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers with QB Paul Smith and WR Charles Clay reaching those marks during the game.

Memorable Games:

- 2001: Marshall 64, East Carolina 61. In the highest-scoring game in collegiate bowl history, Marshall overcame a 30-point halftime deficit behind Byron Leftwich's 576 passing yards. Leftwich hit a leaping Darius Watts from 11 yards out to tie the game at 51 with seconds remaining, and the Herd could have won in regulation but missed the extra point. The teams combined for 1,141 offensive yards.
- 2002: Marshall 38, Louisville 15. Leftwich threw for 249 yards and four touchdowns, becoming the first player in Division I-A history to throw four touchdown passes in two different bowl games.
- 2003: Miami (Ohio) 49, Louisville 28. Ben Roethlisberger threw for 376 yards and four scores as Miami tied a school record with its 13th straight win. All four of Roethlisberger's TD passes came in the first half when the RedHawks jumped to a 35-7 lead. After the game, Roethlisberger announced he would leave early for the NFL Draft.
- 2008: Tulsa 63, Bowling Green 7. Tulsa posted the largest victory margin in collegiate bowl history and became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. QB Paul Smith needed 247 yards and receiver Charles Clay needed 45 yards to reach that mark, and both got there in the fourth quarter.
- 2015: Toledo and Arkansas State teamed to score the third-highest total points in collegiate bowl history, with Toledo taking a 63-44 win. The only higher scoring bowl games in history were the 2001 game in Mobile (then known as the GMAC bowl) where Marshall and East Carolina scored 125 points, and the 2012 Alamo Bowl where Baylor beat Washington 67-56.

Top Individual Performances:

Byron Leftwich, QB, Marshall, 2002 -- After a first-half injury, Leftwich was unable to put weight on his front leg, and was picked up and carried downfield by his offensive linemen between long plays. He finished with 249 yards passing and four touchdowns, becoming the first player in Division I bowl history to throw four TD's in two bowl games in the Herd's win over Louisville.

Byron Leftwich, QB, Marshall, 2001 -- Threw for 576 yards and four touchdowns in the highest-scoring game in collegiate bowl history, as Marshall overcame a 30-point halftime deficit to win 64-61 in double overtime. He finished 41-of-70 throwing and also ran for a TD.

Omar Jacobs, QB, Bowling Green, 2004 -- Went from obscurity to the MAC's standout quarterback as a sophomore, and capped his season with 365 passing yards and five touchdowns in Bowling Green's 52-35 win over Memphis.

LaDainian Tomlinson, TCU, 1999 & 2000 -- Rushed for 242 yards and four touchdowns on 64 carries in his two back-to-back appearances in Mobile, including leading the Horned Frogs to a 28-14 win over East Carolina in the inaugural game.

Kareem Hunt, RB, Toledo, 2015 -- Rushed for 271 yards and five touchdowns in leading the Rockets to a 63-44 win over Arkansas State. In that same game, ASU quarterback Fredi Knighten threw for 403 yards and five scores on 23-of-31 passes in a losing effort.

Last Year's Game:

University of Louisiana junior quarterback Levi Lewis accounted for 308 total yards and two touchdowns leading the Ragin' Cajuns to a 27-17 win over Miami University in the 2020 LendingTree Bowl at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile. Lewis completed 19-of-26 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns. He was also UL's leading rusher with 62 yards on just eight carries. Miami took its only lead on the game on its first possession of the second quarter. Junior running back Jaylon Bester scored on a 5-yard run with 10:25 left in the second quarter to give the Redhawks a 7-0 lead. After punting on its first two possessions, Louisiana scored on its next four possessions to take a 24-7 lead. Stevie Artigue capped a 10-play drive with a 38-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3 with 6:32 left in the half. UL tacked on a touchdown right before halftime to take its first lead 10-7. Junior Elijah Mitchell capped a 7-play drive with a 2-yard touchdown run. Louisiana (11-3) kept the momentum in the second half with touchdown drives on its first two possessions of the third quarter. Lewis fired a 9-yard touchdown pass to Ja'Marcus Bradley to extend the lead to 17-7 with 10:51 left in the third quarter. Miami (8-6) answered with Sam Sloman's 39-yard field goal with 5:18 left to trim the lead to 17-10. The UL offense went right back to work with another long drive capped by Lewis' 12-yard touchdown pass to Bradley to extend the lead to 24-10. Miami made it one score game early in the fourth quarter when Bester scored on a 1-yard run with 11:35 left to cut the lead to 24-17. MU freshman quarterback Brett Gabbert completed 22-of-31 passes for 248 yards in the loss. He completed 12 straight passes during the second and third quarter which is tied for the seventh-longest streak in NCAA bowl history. The Redhawks had gained momentum and were poised to tie the game late in the fourth quarter before two miscues sealed their fate. Miami fumbled at its own 46-yard line with 7:25 left in the game. UL took advantage of the turnover and Artigue tacked on a 38-yard field goal to extend the lead to 27-17. Miami marched to the UL 1-yard line before a botched snap foiled a fourth-down play and sealed the win for the Ragin' Cajuns.

Memorable Games:

- 2015: In the 40th anniversary of the Independence Bowl, legendary Virginia Tech coach Frank Beamer closed out his career with a thrilling 55-52 victory, as the Hokies outlasted the Tulsa Golden Hurricane.
- 2005: Missouri erased a 21-0 first-quarter deficit and rallied for a 38-31 win over South Carolina.
- 2000: Mississippi State beat Texas A&M in a wild 43-41 overtime game, but the game was most memorable for the rare Louisiana blizzard that hit during pre-game warmups and blanketed the field, giving the game its "Snow Bowl" moniker.
- 1997: LSU took a 27-9 win over Notre Dame, with the matchup of the two storied programs

Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl

drawing the largest crowd in bowl history with an over-capacity 50,439 in attendance. 1995: LSU posted a 45-26 win over a Michigan State squad coached by Nick Saban. Four years later, Saban would take over as LSU head coach. 1990: Maryland and nearby Louisiana Tech tied 34-34 in the only tie in Independence Bowl history.

Top Individual Performances:

Daniel Jones, QB, Duke, 2018 – Set the Independence Bowl records for most passing yards (423), passing touchdowns (5) and most touchdowns accounted for (6 – 5 passing, 1 rushing) in his team's 56-27 victory.

T.J. Rahming, WR, Duke, 2018 – Set an Independence Bowl record for receiving yards and tied the record for receptions, hauling in 12 catches for 240 receiving yards and two touchdowns. Also carried the ball twice for 17 yards and returned three punts for 29 yards, breaking the I-Bowl record for all-purpose yards (286).

Isaiah Ford, WR, Virginia Tech, 2015 – Tied the Independence Bowl record with 12 receptions and set the Bowl record with 227 yards receiving, including a 75-yard touchdown. Also carried the ball three times for 23 yards for 250 yards from scrimmage.

Brad Smith, QB, Missouri, 2005 -- Threw for 282 yards and a touchdown on 21-of-37 passes and rushed for 150 yards and three scores on 21 carries, totaling 432 offensive yards in a 38-31 win over South Carolina.

Ja'Mar Toombs, RB, Texas A&M, 2000 -- Scored three touchdowns among his 193 rushing yards on 35 carries in a losing 43-41 effort in the "Snow Bowl"

Josh Huepel, QB, Oklahoma, 1999 -- Threw for 390 yards and three touchdowns, completing 39 of 53 passes, but his team still fell to Ole Miss 25-23.

Kevin Faulk, RB, LSU, 1995 -- Rushed for 234 yards on 25 carries and scored two touchdowns in LSU's 45-26 victory over Michigan State.

Clay Carroll, DT, McNeese State, 1979 -- Was credited with a bowl-record 24 total tackles in the Cowboys' loss to Syracuse.

James Henry, PR/DB, Southern Miss, 1988 -- Became the only player in bowl history, and maybe the only player ever in any bowl, to be named both Offensive and Defensive MVP, after returning two punts for touchdowns in USM's 38-18 win over UTEP.

Last Year's Game:

In a game that featured more combined punts than points scored, the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs defeated the Miami Hurricanes 14-0 in the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl. The teams combined for an I-Bowl record 18 punts for 751 yards, while the two offenses managed just 564 combined yards of total offense. With nine punts each, both punters, Miami's Lou Hedley and Tech's Brady Farlow, set a new Independence bowl record. The lone score through 58 minutes of the game came on a 26-yard pass from La. Tech quarterback J'Mar Smith to running back Israel Tucker at the 9:34 mark of the second quarter. The Bulldogs put the game away late when Smith plowed his way into the end zone with 1:15 remaining in the game to make it a 14-0 game. La. Tech's 14-0 victory was the first shutout in the 44-year history of the Independence Bowl. The 14-combined points are second fewest in bowl history just ahead of the 12 points in Air Force's 9-3 win over Ole Miss in 1983.

Other Trivia:

-Bill Snyder has the most Guaranteed Rate Bowl wins with three. His first came in 1993 when Kansas State beat Wyoming, next was 2013 over Michigan and his most recent came in 2017 with a win over UCLA. Only two other coaches (Mike Gundy – Oklahoma State & Dick Tomey – Arizona) have two wins.

-In the first-ever game in 1989, home-state favorite Arizona was dominated statistically 310-to-130 in yardage, 23-8 in first downs, and 38:06-to-21:54 in possession time, but still managed to take a 17-10 win over North Carolina State. The teams combined for a bowl-record seven turnovers.

-The highest-scoring game in Guaranteed Rate Bowl history was also one of the wildest, as Cal's Tyler Frederickson hit a final-play 35-yard field goal for a 52-49 win over Virginia Tech in 2003. Both teams rallied from 14-point deficits during the game. Cal scored six consecutive touchdowns after falling behind 21-7, and the teams combined for 1,081 yards, and no turnovers.

- The Guaranteed Rate Bowl welcomes back the Big Ten, making it the only bowl game between the Big Ten and Big 12 Conferences. Big Ten and Big 12 have not played in a non-CFP bowl game since this game in 2013.

Memorable Games:

- 1991: Indiana pitched the only shutout in Guaranteed Rate Bowl history, blanking Baylor 24-0 thanks to two turnovers deep in scoring territory.
- 2006: Texas Tech overcame a 31-point deficit to rally for a 44-41 overtime victory over Minnesota, recording the biggest comeback in NCAA Division I-A bowl history. The Gophers led 38-7 midway through the third quarter before the Red Raiders scored 31 points in less than 20 minutes, capped by Alex Trlica's 52-yard field goal on the final play of regulation.
- 2009: Iowa State hadn't had a winning season since 2005, but posted its first win over border rival Minnesota since 1898 in barely holding onto a 14-3 halftime lead in winning 14-13.
- 2010: Iowa defensive back Micah Hyde marred a stellar performance by Missouri quarterback Blaine Gabbert, with his interception and 72-yard return providing the winning score in a 27-24 victory.
- 2016: West Virginia and Arizona State set a Guaranteed Rate Bowl record in their high-scoring shootout with eight lead changes throughout the game, as the Mountaineers topped the Sun Devils, 43-42.
- 2017: Down by 10 going into the second half, Kansas State scored 28 unanswered points to complete a wild comeback and defeat UCLA 35-17. The win helped legendary Kansas State coach Bill Snyder to his 210th career victory.
- 2018: In a match-up that featured two of the top 30 defenses in college football, TCU escaped the Guaranteed Rate Bowl with a 10-7 overtime victory over Cal. The teams combined for nine interceptions, the most in Guaranteed Rate Bowl history. The game ended as the No. 1 trending topic on Twitter that night.

Guaranteed Rate Bowl

Top Individual Performances:

- Byron Hanspard, RB, Texas Tech, 1995 -- Set bowl records for rushing yards and touchdowns with a 260-yard performance and four scores in leading Texas Tech to a 55-41 win over Air Force.
- Drew Bledsoe, QB, Washington State, 1992 -- In the fourth Guaranteed Rate Bowl, threw for a record 476 yards that still stands, hitting 30-of-46 passes including an 87-yard touchdown to Phillip Bobo. He had 196 passing yards in the first quarter alone as WSU beat Utah 31-28.
- Blaine Gabbert, QB, Missouri, 2010 -- Even in a losing effort, completed 41-of-57 passes for 434 yards, all three Missouri bowl records and the completions and attempts bowl-game records.
- Skylar Howard, QB, West Virginia, 2016 -- Became the first 500-yard passer in Guaranteed Rate Bowl history and broke the bowl's records for both passing yards and passing touchdowns, with 532 yards and five touchdowns.
- Jahad Woods, LB, Washington State, 2019 -- Recorded a Bowl and career-high 20 tackles, 10 of which were solo. Woods had five more than the previous Bowl record of 15.

Last Year's Game:

In the most attended Bowl since 2016, 34,105 fans witnessed some of the nation's most prolific offenses -- Air Force's triple option and Washington State's air raid -- meet for the first time ever. With a strong rushing attack, Air Force broke five Bowl records en route to a 31-21 win. The Falcons were able to slow down the Cougars' prolific offense, setting a Bowl record for time of possession with 43:24. With four rushing touchdowns, Air Force broke Bowl records for first downs rushing (27) and rushing attempts (69) in a single game with the latter previously held by College Football Hall of Famer and former Falcons head coach, Fisher DeBerry, in 1995..

2016	Thomas Brown, Wake Forest
2017	Zach Abey, Navy
2018	Michael Warren, Cincinnati
2019	Sam Howell, North Carolina

Memorable Games:

- 2019: Quarterback Sam Howell passed for 294 yards and three touchdowns, rushed for 53 yards and caught a touchdown pass on a trick play as Coach Mack Brown returned to the college football postseason with a 55-13 victory over Temple.
- 2018: Running back Michael Warren rushed for a career-high and Cincinnati-bowl record 166 yards and two touchdowns as the Bearcats beat Virginia Tech, 35-31, in a thrilling game that featured seven lead changes and saw neither team lead by more than a touchdown.
- 2017: After Virginia returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown, Navy dominated as backup QB Zach Abey came on in relief and finished with five rushing touchdowns.
- 2016: QB John Wolford helped Wake Forest score 31 consecutive points and then MVP Thomas Brown and the defense did the rest to hold on for a 34-26 upset victory over 23rd-ranked Temple.
- 2015: Behind Quarterback Keenan Reynolds, three rushing and one passing touchdown, Navy recovered from giving up a game-opening touchdown and rallied to beat Pittsburgh, 44-28, and secure its school single-season record 11th victory of the season. Reynolds broke the FBS record for career touchdowns from scrimmage with 88. Reynolds had set the record earlier this month with 85 in the Army-Navy game, but Kenneth Dixon, Louisiana Tech's four-year star at running back, broke Reynolds' mark in the New Orleans Bowl earlier.
- 2012: San Jose State, seeking an 11-win season and a final Top-25 national ranking, scored twice in the final 4:43 on Austin Lopez's 27-yard field goal and De'Leon Eskridge's one-yard run to rally for a 29-20 win over Bowling Green.
- 2011: Toledo and Air Force combined for a bowl-record 56 points in the first half alone, with the Rockets eventually surviving, 42-41. The win highlighted the debut of Toledo coach Matt Campbell, the youngest head coach in the FBS at age 32 after Tim Beckman took the Illinois job at the end of the regular season.
- 2010: Maryland took a 51-20 win over East Carolina in Ralph Friedgen's final game as Terrapin head coach after a 10-year tenure. It was the most points ever scored by Maryland in a bowl game.

and two touchdowns as the Owls tried desperately to rally Zach Abey, QB, Navy, 2017: Came on in relief of injured teammate Malcolm Perry (16-144, 2 TDs rushing) and finished with five rushing touchdowns. Michael Warren, RB, Cincinnati, 2018, rushed for a career-high and Bearcats'-bowl record 166 yards and two touchdowns in a 35-31 win over Virginia Tech. Sam Howell, QB, North Carolina, 2019: Passed for 294 yards and three touchdowns, rushed for 53 yards and caught a two-yard touchdown pass as the Tar Heels beat Temple, 55-13

Last Year's Game:

Freshman QB Sam Howell competed 25 of 34 passes for 294 yards and three touchdowns, rushed for 53 yards and caught a two-yard touchdown pass on a trick play as North Carolina routed Temple, 55-13. It was a triumphant return to the postseason for Tar Heels Coach Mack Brown, who coached at North Carolina from 1988 to 1997 before heading to Texas. He had been out of coaching the previous five seasons.

Other Trivia:

- The Cheez-It Bowl was originally played in Miami and sprang from a desire for a second bowl in the Miami area, and to showcase the newly-built Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami Dolphins owner Wayne Huizenga also owned Blockbuster Video, which was the game's sponsor in the first three years.

-The inaugural game in 1990 matched two of college football's iconic coaches when Bobby Bowden's Florida State squad faced the Penn State squad of coach Joe Paterno. A bowl-record crowd of 74,021 watched Florida State take a 24-17 win.

-After the 2000 game, Florida Citrus Sports took over the bowl and moved it to Orlando, with Pittsburgh topping North Carolina State 34-19 in the first game played there. Florida Citrus Sports also operates the Citrus Bowl.

Memorable Games:

- 2015: Baylor rewrote the Russell Athletic Bowl record books with an offensive masterpiece in their 49-38 victory over North Carolina. The Bears dashed for an FBS bowl record 645 rushing yards including a 299-yard, three touchdown performance from sophomore running back Johnny Jefferson. Jefferson set the record for most yards (299), touchdowns (three) and longest rush (80) in the bowl's history. The game set Cheez-It Bowl records for most offense (1,243 yards) and points scored
- 2011: Notre Dame led 14-0 in the third quarter, but Florida State's Seminoles rallied, scoring 15 of their 18 points in the fourth quarter to come out on top 18-14. EJ Manuel threw two touchdown passes in a minute and a half span and the Irish were never able to recover.
- 2009: John Clay pounded out 121 yards and scored twice on the ground as Wisconsin's Badgers took the Charles H. Rohe Trophy by a 20-14 score. Miami came out fast with a 16-yard score on the first play from scrimmage after an 84-yard kickoff return by Sam Shields, but after that the Wisconsin defense held Miami to one score in their final 12 drives.
- 2007: Boston College entered the game riding a seven-game winning streak in bowls, tied for the longest active streak. The Eagles didn't disappoint, as Matt Ryan threw for 249 yards and three touchdowns while the defense forced five Michigan State turnovers in the 24-21 win. The Spartans used a fourth-quarter touchdown pass with six minutes left to cut the lead to three and had two other chances to score, but couldn't manage a first down on either one.

Top Individual Performances:

Tellis Redmond, RB, Minnesota, 2000 -- Even in a losing effort, rushed a workhorse 42 times for 246 yards to set bowl records in the 38-30 loss to North Carolina State. He had two first-quarter touchdowns in leading the Gophers to an early lead.

Cheez-It Bowl

Philip Rivers, QB, North Carolina State, 2003 -- Had the most prolific passing game in bowl history, setting records for completions (37), passing yards (475), touchdown passes (five), completion percentage (82.2% 37-of-45) and total offense in leading the Wolfpack to a 56-26 win over Kansas. Rivers is the bowl's only two-time MVP, having also won the award as a freshman in 2000.

Jerricho Cotchery, WR, North Carolina State, 2003 -- As part of Rivers' passing performance, set bowl records for receptions with 13 and receiving yards with 171 in N.C. State's win over Kansas.

Johnny Jefferson, RB, Baylor, 2015 -- Set bowl records for rushing yards (299), rushing touchdowns (three) and longest rush (80) to pace the Baylor offense in their record-breaking 49-38 victory over North Carolina..

Last Year's Game:

Notre Dame quarterback Ian Book completed 20 of 28 passes for 247 yards, and Fighting Irish wide receiver Chase Claypool had seven catches for 146 yards and a touchdown as Notre Dame topped Iowa State 33-9 in the 2019 Cheez-It Bowl.

The Irish (11-2), also winners of the 2018 Citrus Bowl in Orlando, were in control from the outset, as kicker Jonathan Doerer put Notre Dame on the board with a 39-yard field goal with 9:29 left in the first quarter — one of four field goals on the day for the junior — and Claypool, the game MVP, followed up with a 24-yard touchdown catch to give his team a 10-0 lead with 3:20 left to play in the quarter.

Notre Dame ultimately took a 20-6 lead into the locker room at halftime, as head coach Brian Kelly improved to 33-0 when leading by 14 or more points at the half.

The Cyclones (7-6, 5-4 Big 12) were plagued by turnovers during their first Orlando bowl trip, as Notre Dame's first 10 points came off Iowa State fumbles. The Cyclones ultimately made two trips inside the Notre Dame red zone but only came away with field goals on each try. Quarterback Brock Purdy completed 17 of 30 passes for 222 yards, and running back Breece Hall had 17 carries for 55 yards, but Notre Dame's offense outgained Iowa State 455 to 272 on the day.

Memorable Games:

- 1998: Heavy underdog Purdue drove 80 yards for a touchdown in the final minute and Drew Brees' third touchdown pass of the game gave the Boilermakers a surprising 37-34 win over a Kansas State squad that was ranked No. 3 in the BCS standings.
- 2005: Nebraska survived in a 32-28 win over Michigan in a game most remembered for the final play. Michigan had a seven-lateral scramble on the final play, with Tyler Ecker reaching the Nebraska 16, dodging players and coaches who had come onto the field thinking the game was over, before being run out of bounds. No flags were thrown on the play despite the dozens from both benches coming on the field.
- 2011: In the highest-scoring game in NCAA bowl history, Baylor quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin led the Bears to a pulsating 67-56 win over Washington. Baylor rushed for 485 yards and had 77 yards in total offense, and the 1,397 combined yards and 17 touchdowns by both teams were bowl records. Terrance Ganaway rushed for two scores in the fourth quarter to insure Baylor's victory.
- 2016: TCU scored 31 consecutive points in the second half after a first half in which the Horned Frogs were the victim of a 31-0 onslaught at the hands of Oregon. The two teams traded scores in two overtime periods before TCU quarterback Bram Kohlhausen and the Horned Frog defense secured a win in the third overtime period 47-41.

Valero Alamo Bowl

Top Individual Performances:

- Drew Brees, QB, Purdue, 1998 -- Led the heavy-underdog Boilermakers to an upset 37-34 win over BCS No. 3-ranked Kansas State, hitting 25-of-53 passes for 230 yards and three touchdowns, including a 24-yard game winning TD in the closing minutes.
- Dan Alexander, RB, Nebraska, 2000 -- In what was the biggest blowout in Alamo Bowl history, ran for 240 yards on only 20 carries and scored three touchdowns in leading Nebraska to a 66-17 win over Northwestern. He led a Cornhusker rush attack that generated 476 yards.
- Robert Griffin III, QB, Baylor, 2011 -- The 2011 Alamo Bowl became the highest scoring bowl game in NCAA history, and the Heisman Trophy winner was a big part with a 24-of-33 passing performance for 295 yards and a score and 74 more rush yards with another TD.
- David Ash, QB, Texas, 2012 -- After not knowing if he would even start, threw for two touchdowns in the final 8:18 and also had a third-quarter rushing score in bringing the Longhorns back from two 10-point deficits to a 31-27 win over Oregon State.
- Marcus Mariota, QB, Oregon, 2013 -- Accounted for 386 of Oregon's 469 offensive yards, rushing for 133 yards on 15 carries and throwing for 253 yards and a touchdown in leading the Ducks to a runaway 30-7 win over Texas.
- Bram Kohlhausen, QB, TCU, 2016 -- The senior quarterback racked up 351 passing yards on 28-45 passing with two touchdowns through the air. He also added 45 yards and two scores on the ground. His 351 passing yards marked the 8th time in bowl game history a quarterback threw for 300 or more yards.

Last Year's Game:

The 2019 edition of the Valero Alamo Bowl saw the underdog Texas Longhorns come in with a chip on their shoulder and something to prove against #11 Utah. Texas quarterback Sam Ehlinger led the attack through the air and on the ground as the veteran racked up 274 all-purpose yards and four touchdowns. The Longhorn defense came to play as well with linebacker Joseph Ossai accounting for three sacks and six tackles for loss to help keep the Utes out of the end zone until the fourth quarter. The Utes, who were coming in off a difficult loss to Oregon in the Pac-12 Championship Game, just couldn't ever get into a rhythm offensively and were unable to reach the redzone until late in the third quarter. Quarterback Tyler Huntley gave the Utes life with their first touchdown of the game early in the fourth on a 4 yard pass to Demari Simpkins, but Texas would respond with two scores of their own to seal the game and claim their third ever Valero Alamo Bowl victory.

Other Trivia:

- Raycom Sports president and CEO Ken Haines was scheduled to make the formal Charlotte pitch for a bowl game to the NCAA Bowl Certification Committee on Sept. 11, 2001 in Philadelphia. But just before that 10:45 a.m. scheduled meeting, the terrorist attacks on New York and Washington D.C. took place, and Haines was the one that informed the group of athletic directors and NCAA staffers of the attacks. After a few brief comments, that meeting was cancelled, and it wasn't until May of the following year that he made what was a successful presentation.

-Bids to the first Duke's Mayo Bowl were not extended until Sunday, Dec. 8, to Virginia and West Virginia. In one week, the game was sold out and 73,535 -- still the second- largest in bowl history -- was in attendance. The sellout is believed to be the fastest ever for a first-year bowl game.

Memorable Games:

2006: Navy only had to run out the final two minutes to secure a victory over Boston College, but Reggie Campbell fumbled a pitch with 1:43 left and BC's Jolonn Dunbar recovered at the Navy 40. The Eagles, out of time outs, got a 16-yard pass from Matt Ryan to tight end Ryan Pruvis, setting up walk-on kicker Steve Aponavicius for a career-long 37-yard field goal on the final play for the 25-24 victory. The win extended Boston College's bowl-winning streak to seven games.

2009: Pittsburgh kicker Dan Hutchins kicked his fourth field goal of the game, a 33-yarder with 52 seconds left, to boost Pitt to a 19-17 win over home-state favorite North Carolina. Pitt freshman tailback Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown while breaking the Panthers' single-season freshman rushing record held by Tony Dorsett. T. J. Yates passed for 183 yards and two scores for UNC, the last late in the third quarter to give the Tar Heels a 17-16 lead.

2008: West Virginia quarterback Pat White and ride out Hakeem Nicks connected eight times for 217 yards and three touchdowns, proving the Hilltoppers with just enough offense to edge North Carolina 31-30.

Top Individual Performances:

Wali Lundy, RB, Virginia, 2002 -- Scored four touchdowns, two on rushes and two on receptions from Marques Hagans and Matt Schaub, in leading Virginia to a 48-22 win over West Virginia in the inaugural bowl. Lundy rushed for 127 yards and had 76 receiving yards.

Pat White, QB, West Virginia, 2008 -- Threw for 332 yards in becoming the first quarterback in NCAA history to win four games as a starter.

Dan Hutchins, K, Pittsburgh, 2009 -- Kicked a bowl-record four field goals, the last one coming from 33 yards away with only 0:52 left, to give Pittsburgh a 19-17 win over North Carolina.

Hakeem Nicks, WR, North Carolina, 2008 -- Set a bowl record with eight catches for 217 yards and three touchdowns.

Brendon Kay, QB, Cincinnati, 2012 -- Set a bowl record with four touchdown passes, all of 25 yards or more, and the last one was an 83-yarder to Travis Kelce with 0:44 left to break a tie and lead the Bearcats to a 48-34 win over Duke.

Nick Chubb, RB, Georgia, 2014 -- Set a bowl record with 266 yards rushing and two touchdowns in leading the Bulldogs past Louisville 37-14. Chubb's total was the second-highest single-game rush total in school history, behind only Herschel Walker's 283 yards against Vanderbilt in 1980.

Dak Prescott, QB, Mississippi State, 2015 -- Closed out his college career in impressive fashion, throwing for a Belk Bowl-record 380 yards and four touchdowns in Mississippi State's 51-28 victory over North Carolina State. Selected the game MVP, Prescott completed 25 of 42 passes and ran for 47 yards to become the fourth player in FBS history to throw for 9,000 yards and run for 2,500 yards.

Last Year's Game:

Lynn Bowden Jr. ran for 233 yards on 34 carries, and then tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Josh Ali with 15 seconds left as Kentucky rallied behind its remarkable receiver-turned-quarterback to beat Virginia Tech 37-30. Bowden ran for two touchdowns before leading an 18-play, 85-yard game-winning drive that took more than eight minutes off the clock. It ended with Ali getting open down the middle of the end zone. Bowden, who took over as Kentucky's quarterback after five games because of injuries, passed for 73 yards on 12 attempts. His rushing day was the biggest in a bowl game since Texas A&M's Johnny Manziel ran for 219 yards vs. Oklahoma in 2013.

Other Trivia:

- The Music City Bowl is one of only a handful of bowls nationally in which both a kicker and a punter have won the MVP award.
- The Music City Bowl has a history of compelling games and upsets. The favored team has won only seven times in the bowl's 16-year history.
- The bowl game is part of Nashville's Holiday Tradition. "Music City" is ranked as one of the U.S.'s top destination cities for entertainment and Southern hospitality.
- The bowl was started when Nissan Stadium was built as part of the relocation of the Houston Oilers to Tennessee. The first game in 1998 was played at Vanderbilt Stadium.

Memorable Games:

- 2014: Notre Dame 31, LSU 28. Notre Dame kicked a last second field goal to win this record breaking game with the largest lead only being 3 points. Altogether, ten different Bowl records were broken; six of them were by the same person (Fournette, LSU).
- 2012: Hometown Vanderbilt wrapped up its best season since 1915 and won nine games for only the third time ever, with Jordan Rodgers throwing for two scores and running for another in a 38-24 victory over North Carolina State.
- 2010: North Carolina 30, Tennessee 27 (2OT). North Carolina won in double overtime after a controversial penalty that stopped the clock and allowed UNC to kick a field goal that sent the game into overtime. The bowl set records for attendance and TV ratings as 69,143 people packed the stands and it scored a 4.92 rating on ESPN.
- 2007: Kentucky 35, Florida State 28. A then record-setting crowd of 68,661 was in attendance and was not disappointed, with a high-scoring affair that featured nearly 1,000 yards of total offense.
- 2008: Vanderbilt 16, Boston College 14. Vanderbilt made its first bowl appearance since 1982 and did it at home, with the commodores winning their first bowl in 53 years by upsetting Boston College.
- 2000: West Virginia 49, Ole Miss 38. Ole Miss put in freshman quarterback Eli Manning in the second half after trailing 35-9 at halftime and Manning completed 12-of-20 passes for 167 yards and three scores and led his team to 22 unanswered fourth-quarter points. Although Ole Miss didn't win, this was considered Manning's coming-out party. West Virginia gave retiring coach Don Nehlen his final career victory.

Top Individual Performances:

- Vick Ballard, RB, Mississippi State, 2011 -- Rushed for 180 yards on only 14 carries and had touchdowns of 60 and 72 yards in leading MSU past Wake Forest.
- Marion Barber III, RB, Minnesota, 2004 -- Had a workhorse 37 carries for 187 yards and a touchdown as Minnesota edged Alabama 20-16
- Marques Hagans, QB, Virginia, 2005 -- Threw for 358 yards on 25-of-35 passing and two touchdowns, while also carrying for 34 yards in Virginia's narrow win

TransPerfect Music City Bowl

over Minnesota

Eli Manning, QB, Ole Miss, 2000 -- In only one half, hit on 12-of-20 passes for 167 yards and three scores for the Rebels

Leonard Fournette, RB, LSU, 2014 – Broke 6 different records including most all-purpose yards (264 yards) and had half of LSU's record breaking 285 rushing yards while only carrying the ball 11 times and having 3 of LSU's 4 touchdowns

Last Year's Game:

The 2019 Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl helped celebrate the 150th anniversary of college football by featuring a thrilling showdown between the Mississippi State Bulldogs and Louisville Cardinals.

In front of a raucous crowd of nearly 47,000 fans, both teams exchanged leads in the first half. After a few halftime adjustments, first-year Cardinals coach Scott Satterfield helped guide Louisville to a dominant second half and the program's first bowl win in four years.

The bowl festivities were capped-off with a postgame concert inside the bowl's Fan Zone on Broadway featuring Gary LeVox of Rascal Flatts.

In all, tens of thousands of fans packed into downtown during one of the city's top weekends leading to $16.7 million in direct economic impact.

Memorable Games:

1954: Rice took a 28-6 win over Alabama behind the record-setting running of Owl halfback Dicky Maegle, who had 265 yards and three scores. But one of the TD's remains one of the most memorable in college football history, the "bench-tackle play" with Maegle awarded a 95-yard touchdown run when Alabama's Tommy Davis came off the bench to blindside the Owl All-American at the Crimson Tide 40-yard line.

1970: Notre Dame returned to bowl games after a 45-year self-imposed ban and faced off against top-ranked and unbeaten Texas. The Irish, led by quarterback Joe Theismann, led 17-14 late in the fourth quarter before the Longhorns scored late for a 21-17 win and an undisputed national title. The same teams met the following year, when the Irish ended Texas' 30-game winning streak with a 24-11 win, denying the Longhorns the AP national title.

2009: The final Classic staged in venerable Cotton Bowl Stadium became one of the most wide-open, with a record crowd of 88,175 watching Ole Miss outlast Texas Tech in the highest scoring game in Classic history, 47-34. The teams combined for a record 81 points.

2015: Michigan State erased a 20-point deficit in the final quarter and scored the game-winner with only 0:17 left in a 42-41 win over Baylor. Quarterback Connor

Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic

Cook led two late scoring drives to make it a six-point game, and Baylor's attempt to ice the game resulted in a blocked field goal that set up Cook's winning touchdown pass.

Tony Temple, TB, Missouri, 2008 – Rushed for 281 yards to erase the Classic's 54-year old rushing record and lift the Tigers to a 38-7 victory over Arkansas. Temple also scored four rushing touchdowns to set a bowl record.

Johnny Manziel, QB, Texas A&M, 2013 --Recorded a bowl-record 516 total yards along with four touchdowns in leading the Aggies to a 41-13 win over Oklahoma. Manziel, who scored on a 23-yard run on the game's opening drive, set an FBS bowl record with 229 rush yards on 17 carries and completed 22-of-34 passes for 287 yards, becoming only the second player with 200 rush and pass yards in a bowl game.

Riley Patterson, PK, Memphis, 2020 – Set the all-time college bowl record for field goals with 6 against Penn State

Other Trivia:

- The Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl is the only bowl game that honors all three branches of the U.S. Armed Forces and the only bowl game that has had all three service academies participate in the game. (Air Force in 2007, 2008, 2009, 2012 and 2015; Army in 2010, 2017 and 2018; and Navy in 2013 and 2016).

- Lockheed Martin Aeronautics, with facilities in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, became the title sponsor of the Armed Forces Bowl in early 2014.

- The Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl unveiled a new championship trophy in 2010, with actual battle-used metal forged into the trophy's structure. All five branches of the military are represented with their seals engraved on the backside of the trophy.

- Since 2006, the Executive Committee of the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl has presented the Great American Patriot Award to an individual or group that is of high moral fiber and good character; has spent his or her career serving the common good of the United States; has gone beyond the call of duty to serve and protect his or her country; has proven dedication and loyalty in upholding the Constitution and the laws of the nation; and has worked tirelessly to make the U.S. a better and safer place for all its citizens.

- The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl initiated the Armed Forces Merit Award in 2012 to honor an individual and/or group. Nominations are accepted over the summer, with the selection process beginning in October. The Armed Forces Merit Award is selected by a panel of individuals from the FWAA and the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

Memorable Games:

- 2003: The inaugural game, called the PlainsCapital Bank Fort Worth Bowl, featured two top-25 schools with double-digit regular-season win totals. Boise State outlasted TCU 34-31 to win a bowl game on the road for the first time in school history.
- 2009: The game featured only the sixth major college game since 1996 with kickoff return touchdowns on consecutive plays (none had been in a bowl game). Air Force also intercepted Houston's Case Keenum six times, tying a bowl record for pass interceptions. Air Force went on to win 47-20 over Houston.
- 2010: Sparked by a 55-yard fumble return by defensive end Josh McNary during the opening minutes of play, Army completed its first winning season since 1996 by defeating SMU 16-14 in front of a sold-out stadium-record of 36,742 at Gerald J. Ford Stadium.
- 2011: Cody Hoffman's third touchdown reception of the game, with 11 seconds left in the contest, lifted BYU to a 24-21 win over Tulsa. BYU drove 48 yards in 12 plays during a 4:08 scoring drive as Hoffman caught a 2-yard TD pass from quarterback Riley Nelson to secure the win.
- 2015: Houston capped a 29-point fourth quarter with a two-point conversion to seal a 35-34 victory over Pittsburgh with just 0:59 left. The comeback, the largest ever in a bowl that didn't go to overtime, saw the Cougars recover two onside kicks in a row to stun the Panthers.
- 2016: Jonathan Barnes kicked a 32-yard field goal as time expired as Louisiana Tech beat Navy, 48-45, in the highest scoring game in Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl history. Navy tied the score at 45-45 with less than four minutes remaining in the game.
- 2017: For the second straight year, the game down to the final seconds, as the Army West Point Black Knights scored 14 points in the final 18 seconds to earn a 42-35 victory over San Diego State. As a team, Army ran for 440 yards. The Aztecs' Rashaad Penny rushed for 221 yards and four touchdowns on 14 carries.
- 2018: Army West Point matched an all-time, all-bowl record for points by one team (70) and also equaled the all-time bowl record for margin of victory (56).

Top Individual Performances:

- Rashaad Penny, RB, San Diego State – Closed his career by running for a bowl-record 221 yards on just 14 carries, with a LMAFB-best four touchdowns before becoming a first-round draft pick in April.
- Jared Goff, QB, California, 2015 – Threw for 467 yards and six touchdowns, breaking Aaron Rodgers' Cal record for passing yards in a bowl game. Goff was 25 of 37 with no interceptions.
- Ryan Dinwiddie, QB, Boise State, 2003 – In the inaugural bowl, threw three touchdown passes, including an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman in the final

Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl

- minutes, to lead the Broncos to a 34-31 win over hometown favorite TCU.
- Kyle Van Noy, LB, Brigham Young, 2011 – Recorded 10 tackles including five for losses and two sacks, and also forced a fumble in BYU's narrow 24-21 win over TCU. He led a Cougar defense that held the Golden Hurricane, which had been averaging over 200 rush yards per game, to only 37 yards on the ground.
- Jason Swanson, QB, Kansas, 2005 – Threw four touchdown passes, three of them of 30 yards or more, in leading the Jayhawks to a 42-13 win over Houston.
- Cody Hoffman, WR, Brigham Young, 2011 – Caught three touchdown passes from Riley Nelson, the last one coming with only 11 seconds left, as the Cougars rallied for a 24-21 win over Tulsa. Hoffman wound up with eight catches for 122 yards.
- Jordan Taylor, WR, Rice, 2012 – Had nine catches for 153 yards and three touchdowns, two of them coming in the second half in helping the Owls wrap up a 33-14 win over Air Force. Taylor's scores covered 16, 22 and 34 yards.
- Trent Taylor, WR, Louisiana Tech, 2016 – Set bowl records with 12 receptions and 233 yards and tallied two touchdown receptions in the Bulldog's 48-45 final-second victory over Navy.
- Kelvin Hopkins Jr., QB, Army West Point, 2018 – Set a bowl record with five rushing touchdowns and totaled 170 rushing yards on 11 carries as Army West Point matched an all-bowl record with 70 points.

Other Trivia:

- The Liberty Bowl was actually founded in another city -- in Philadelphia, where the first game was played in 1959 and matched Penn State against Alabama, coached by Bear Bryant.
- Four Heisman Trophy winners have played in the Liberty Bowl -- Terry Baker, Ernie Davis, Doug Flutie and Bo Jackson
- The 1964 game was played in Atlantic City, N.J., at the Atlantic City Convention Center, making the Liberty Bowl the first-ever indoor college bowl game. The bowl moved to its current Memphis home in 1965.
- The 1968 game matched two football icons on the field. Archie Manning was the quarterback for Ole Miss and Frank Beamer was a defensive back for Virginia Tech.
- In 2018, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl is celebrating its 60th year. It is America's 7th oldest bowl game.
- 2020 marks the AutoZone Liberty Bowl's 62nd year. It is America's 7th oldest bowl game.

- Randy White, DL, Maryland, 1974 -- Later an All-Pro defensive lineman for the

AutoZone Liberty Bowl

Dallas Cowboys, White set a bowl record for solo tackles with a dozen against Tennessee, also the Volunteers did beat the Terrapins in a 7-3 struggle. White was later named to both the College Football and Pro Football Halls of Fame. Dak Prescott, QB, Mississippi State, 2013 -- Ran for two touchdowns and passed for three more, setting a bowl record for touchdowns responsible for, while throwing for 283 yards and rushing for 78 in the Bulldogs' 44-7 win over Rice. Prescott led MSU to the biggest margin of victory in AutoZone Liberty Bowl history.

Last Year's Game:

The AutoZone Liberty Bowl celebrated its 61st anniversary as a crowd of 50,515 watched nationally ranked Navy square off against Kansas State. The Midshipmen were ranked 21st in the AP Poll with a 10-2 record and a win over the Army in the annual Army-Navy game. K-State head coach Chris Klieman led the Wildcats to the Bowl in his first season with an 8-4 record. Only 3 points were scored in the first quarter, coming on a 21-yard field goal by Bijan Nichols. But the offensive pace picked up in the second quarter. K-State's Phillip Brooks had an electrifying 66-yard punt return for a touchdown, that put the Wildcats in the lead 7-3. But Navy answered back, as Perry completed a 27-yard touchdown pass to Keoni Makekai. The TD capped off an 8-play 69-yard drive and put Navy back on top 10-7. K-State responded, as Blake Lynch booted a 39-yard field goal and the game was tied 10-10 at halftime.

The game's defensive tussle continued in the second half. Just one touchdown was scored in the third quarter. Navy opened the quarter with a 9-play, 66-yard drive that ended with Chance Warren running 20 yards for a touchdown that put Navy back in the lead 17-10. Going into the game, Navy's option offense garnered most of the attention. But through three quarters, it was the Navy defense that caused K-State the most problems. The Midshipmen "D" held the Wildcats to just 73 total yards.

Facing a 7-point deficit and only 15 minutes left to play, the Wildcats leaned heavily on quarterback Skylar Thompson make a comeback. And Skylar Thompson delivered. With just over five minutes to play, Thompson finished off a 6-play, 79-yard drive with a 1-yard run into the endzone to tie the game at 17. Now, all eyes were back on the Navy offense and quarterback Malcolm Perry. With less than 30 seconds left on the clock, Navy set up the winning score on a pass, not by Perry, but instead by C. J. Williams. On fourth-and-3 from the Kansas State 46, Navy gambled. Perry took the snap and pitched to Williams who completed the halfback option pass to a wide-open Chance Warren for a 41-yard gain to the K-State 5-yard line. Perry spiked the ball to set up a last-second field goal attempt to win the game. Bijan Nichols booted a 23-yard field goal with two seconds remaining to give Navy a 20-17 win over K-State. Perry was named the game's MVP. In addition to the impressive attendance, the 61st AutoZone Liberty Bowl was watched by more than 5.5 million viewers on ESPN.

2018	Ty Gangi, QB, Nevada	BJ Edmonds, Safety, Arkansas State
2019	Xazavian Halladay, RB, Wyoming	Allijah Halliburton, DB, Wyoming

Memorable Games:

2015: The inaugural game was held on December 29, 2015, between the Nevada Wolf Pack and the Colorado State Rams. It was to be played between teams from Conference USA and the Mountain West, with the Sun Belt as a secondary tie-in. However, due to a lack of bowl-eligible teams to meet these tie-ins, the game was ultimately played between Mountain West teams, marking the first time since 1979 that two teams from the same conference appeared in a non-championship bowl.

2017: Utah State's Savon Scarver returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, then New Mexico State's Jason Huntley took the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a score.

2018: Nevada took what looked to be the winning lead with just 1:06 left on the clock, but Arkansas State tied the game with a field goal as regulation expired. The Red Wolves kicked a successful field goal in their overtime possession, but Nevada walked it off with an 11- yard touchdown pass to Reagan Roberson.

Top Individual Performances:

Xazavian Valladay, RB, Wyoming, 2019 – Wyoming's star back shone bright breaking off several big gains and capping his season with a stellar 208 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries. The X factor added 91 yards and a score receiving to capture NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Offensive MVP honors.

James Butler, RB, Nevada, 2015 – The 5-foot-9, 200-pound back looked like a bowling ball on the winning touchdown run, but he also showcased his speed throughout a 24-carry, 189-yard rushing effort. Nevada passed for only 74 yards, so they needed every bit of Butler's production on the ground. He averaged 7.9 yards per carry and scored two touchdowns, making this an easy selection.

Elijah Mitchell, DB, Nevada, 2015 -- Mitchell's 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown gave Nevada a 19-10 lead late in the second quarter. It was the Wolf Pack's first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1998, and it ended up being the difference in this win.

Memorable Games:

- 2018: Charlie Brewer led the Baylor Bears to a 45-38 victory over Vanderbilt, and in the process set a new Texas Bowl record with 384 passing yards. Baylor and the Vanderbilt shattered another Texas Bowl record with a combined 1,241 total yards.
- 2015: In a record-setting and MVP performance, LSU RB Leonard Fournette set the Texas Bowl individual scoring record with 30 points and the Texas Bowl all-purpose yards record with 256 yards. Fournette finished the game with 29 carries for 212 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns and a 44-yard touchdown reception for five total TDs.
- 2014: In a rematch of former Southwest Conference rivals, Arkansas rolled to an easy 31-7 win over Texas in front of a Texas Bowl record 71,115 fans. Brandon Allen had a pair of TD passes for the Razorbacks in their first bowl appearance in three years.
- 2013: Brisly Estime's 70-yard punt return in the final two minutes set up quarterback Terrel Hunt's 12-yard scramble with 1:14 left, lifting Syracuse to a 21-17 victory over Minnesota.
- 2011: Paced by the 329-yard passing performance of quarterback Ryan Tannehill, Texas A&M wins its final game as a Big 12 Conference member in holding off Northwestern 33-22.
- 2010: Robert Griffin III, who would win the Heisman Trophy as the nation's top collegiate player one year later, leads Baylor to its first bowl appearance in 16 years, but the Bears fall to Illinois 38-14.
- 2007: Andy Dalton and TCU hold off a late charge by Case Keenum and the hometown-favorite Houston Cougars as the Horned Frogs take a 20-13 win.

Top Individual Performances:

- Charlie Brewer, QB, Baylor, 2018 – Threw 384 passing yards and rushed 16 times for 109 yards to lead Baylor to a 45-38 win over Vanderbilt.
- Leonard Fournette, RB, LSU, 2015 -- Rushed for 212 yards on 29 carries and scored four rushing touchdowns and one 44-yard receiving touchdown leading LSU to a 56-27 victory over Texas Tech
- Ryan Tannehill, QB, Texas A&M, 2011 – Threw for 329 yards and a score, hitting 27 of 40 passes in leading the Aggies to a win over Northwestern in their last game as a Big 12 Conference member
- Mikel Leshoure, RB, Illinois, 2010 – Rushed for 184 yards on 29 carries and scored three touchdowns in leading Illinois to a 38-14 win over Baylor
- Ricky Dobbs, QB, Navy, 2009 – Posted the biggest rushing-and-passing outing in bowl history, running for 166 yards and three touchdowns and throwing for 130 yards and another score in a 35-13 victory over Missouri

Last Year's Game:

In last year's matchup between the Texas A&M Aggies and the Oklahoma State Cowboys, the Cowboys got a quick start to the game scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter, but the Aggies quickly rallied and came back from a 14-point deficit to beat the Cowboys 24-21.

The Cowboys took the lead early in the first quarter with two touchdowns and lead by seven going into halftime. The Aggies offense tied the game up in the third quarter with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jhamon Ausbon and with a quick start to the fourth quarter, Aggie QB Kellen Mond ran for 67 yards to give the Aggies a 21-14 lead. After the Aggies added a 24-yard field goal, Cowboys' Braydon Johnson caught a five-yard touchdown reception to cut the lead, but the Aggies secured the victory by recovering the Cowboys' onside kick with less than a minute left.

Mond, who threw for 95 yards and ran for a career-high 117 yards with one touchdown, was named the 2019 Texas Bowl MVP. The Aggies Texas Bowl victory also marked Head Coach Jimbo Fisher's 100th career win.

2017	Quinton Flowers, South Florida
2018	Jamie Newman, Wake Forest
2020	Desmond Ridder, Cincinnati

Memorable Games:

- 2007: Cincinnati quarterback Ben Mauk set bowl records for passing yards, completions and passing touchdowns in leading the Bearcats to a 31-21 victory over Southern Mississippi in Jeff Bower's final game as Golden Eagle head coach. Mauk finished with 334 yards and four touchdowns, hitting on 30-of-52 passes.
- 2008: Behind quarterback Mike Teel, Rutgers rallied from a 17-6 halftime deficit to post a 28-23 victory over North Carolina State and now-NFL quarterback starter Russell Wilson. Teel finished with 319 passing yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring pass to Kenny Britt with 8:30 left that gave the Scarlet Knights the lead for good at 26-23.
- 2010: Connecticut's Andre Dixon rushed for 126 yards and a touchdown, while his Huskies teammates limited South Carolina to only 205 offensive yards en route to a 20-7 win. UConn built a 20-0 lead early in the fourth quarter before the Gamecocks scored their only touchdown on a two-yard Brian Maddox run.
- 2017: South Florida's Quinton Flowers became the American Athletic Conference's career leader in total offense while leading the Bulls to two scores in the final 4:26 to capture the Birmingham Bowl for the second year in a row. Flowers passed for 311 yards and four touchdowns while rushing 14 times for 106 yards and 1 touchdown. Texas Tech's Nic Shimonek threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to T.J. Vasher with 1:31 remaining in the game to give the red raiders the lead. But, that left too much time on the clock for Senior Flowers and he connected with Tyre McCants in the end zone with 16 seconds left to seal the victory in dramatic fashion.

Top Individual Performances:

- Ben Mauk, B, Cincinnati, 2007 -- Threw for a bowl-record 334 yards and added another bowl mark with four touchdown passes in a 31-21 victory over Southern Mississippi. He hit on 30-of-52 passes.
- Mike Teel, QB, Rutgers, 2008 -- His Scarlet Knights trailed 17-6 at halftime before Teel led a rally, passing for 319 yards and two second-half touchdowns in pacing Rutgers to a 28-23 victory over North Carolina State.
- Andre Dixon, RB, Connecticut, 2010 -- Rushed for 126 of UConn's 146-yard team rushing total and had a clinching 10-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter in leading the Huskies to a surprising 20-7 win over South Carolina
- Jordan Matthews, WR, Vanderbilt, 2014 -- Was on the receiving end of five passes for 143 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including a pair of 50-yarders from quarterback Patton Robinette in the Commodores' 41-24 win over Houston.
- Quinton Flowers, QB, South Florida, 2017 -- After struggling in the first half going 4-12 passing, Flowers turned it around in the second half tying the bowl record for touchdown passes with 4 while also rushing for 1. Trailing late Flowers found Tyre McCants in the end zone with 16 seconds left to give South Florida the victory.
- Jamie Newman, QB, Wake Forest, 2018 -- He ran for three touchdowns (1 yard, 17 yards, and 1 yard) and threw one touchdown. He was 22-40 for 328 yards. His last running touchdown came with 34 seconds left in the game to give Wake Forest the victory.

Memorable Games:

- 2019: LSU quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Joe Burrow scored eight total touchdowns and threw for 493 yards passing, both Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl records, while wide receiver Justin Jefferson also set multiple Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl records for receiving yards (227), receptions (14) and receiving touchdowns (four). In total, 18 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl records were broken or tied as the Tigers defeated the Sooners 63-28 on the way to winning the CFP National Championship in New Orleans.
- 2013: Behind the arm of Johnny Manziel, the Texas A&M Aggies overcame a 21-point halftime deficit to defeat the Duke Blue Devils 52-48. The night of offensive fireworks set or tied records in 20 game categories, including points scored, total offense and first downs. On TV, an average of 8.69 million viewers tuned into the epic battle, establishing it as ESPN's most-viewed non-BCS bowl game telecast of all time.
- 2012: Clemson quarterback Tajh Boyd led a 60-yard drive in the final 1:39, hitting on a 26-yard pass to DeAndre Hopkins on fourth-and-16 in the 10-play drive, and Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal on the game's final play to give Clemson a wild 25-24 win over LSU.
- 2007: The 40th anniversary game between Clemson and Auburn featured stout defense in the first half and fast-moving offense in the second, and in the end the two Tigers logged the first overtime game in bowl history. In the OT, Mark Buchholz' 25-yard field goal gave Clemson the lead, but Auburn QB Brandon Cox hit Rodgeriqu Smith for 12 yards to set up Kodi Burns' game-winning seven-yard run.
- 1998: Georgia avenged a 1995 Peach Bowl loss with a stirring comeback 35-33 win over Virginia, after the Cavaliers had built a 21-point lead. The Bulldogs responded with 21 straight points of their own and took an eight-point fourth-quarter lead on Quincy Carter's one-yard quarterback sneak, but Virginia quarterback Aaron Brooks had a 30-yard scoring scramble with 1:34 left before a tying two-point try failed. But Virginia recovered the onside kick and had one more chance, but a 48-yard field goal sailed wide right with 19 seconds left.

1995: Georgia got a miracle play to tie the game with 1:09 left when Jason Ferguson picked up a Virginia fumble and returned it 10 yards for a touchdown that made it 27-27. But Virginia's Demetrius Allen returned the ensuing kickoff for a game-winning 83-yard touchdown as the Cavaliers posted a thrilling 34-27 win.

1985: In a game that included 16 bowl records broken or tied, Army ran for 291 yards and held a 31-23 lead before Illinois rallied behind quarterback Jack Trudeau to a late touchdown. But a tying two-point conversion attempt failed with only 34 seconds left.

Top Individual Performances:

Joe Burrow, QB, LSU, 2019 – Completed 29-of-39 passes for a bowl-record 493 yards and seven passing touchdowns against the Sooners to secure a berth in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Justin Jefferson, WR, LSU, 2019 – Posted a record-breaking performance with 14 catches for 227 yards and four touchdowns to lead LSU to its first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal win against Oklahoma.

Johnny Manziel, QB, Texas A&M, 2013 – Completed 30-of-38 passes for 382 yards and 77 rushing yards and scored five touchdowns in securing the Aggies' 52-48 come-from-behind win over Duke.

Tajh Boyd, QB, Clemson, 2012 -- Completed 36-of-50 passes for 346 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions in leading the Tigers to a 25-24 win over LSU. Boyd led a 60-yard march in the game's final 1:39, converting on a fourth-and-16 to keep the drive alive and setting up Chandler Catanzaro's final-play 37-yard field goal for the game-winner.

Devin Hester, DB, Miami, 2004 -- Returned a blocked punt 78 yards for a touchdown, and one year later returned an interception 28 yards to set up a field goal in helping Miami take a 27-10 win over in-state rival Florida.

Demetrius Allen, WR, Virginia, 1995 -- Set numerous bowl records including an 82-yard touchdown reception and an 83-yard punt return for a touchdown to secure the Cavaliers' 34-27 win over Georgia.

Michael Brooks, DB, North Carolina State, 1988 -- Set a bowl record with three interceptions in leading the Wolfpack to a 28-23 victory over Iowa.

Last Year's Game:

The Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl's second College Football Playoff Semifinal featured a top-four matchup between No. 4 Oklahoma and No. 1 LSU in front of a record crowd of 78,347 fans at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. It marked Oklahoma's first appearance in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, LSU's first-ever game in the College Football Playoff and the first time that two Heisman Trophy finalists played in the Bowl. LSU needed only three plays to race 42 yards for its first score as Joe Burrow connected with Justin Jefferson for a 19-yard TD less than 3 minutes into the game. The Sooners quickly countered after a Hurts' 51-yard pass to CeeDee Lamb set up a 3-yard touchdown run by Kennedy Brooks that tied the score at 7-7, but it was all LSU after that. The Tigers would go on to score touchdowns in seven of their first eight drives in the half, posting a dominating 49-14 lead going into halftime. The Sooners and Tigers exchanged a pair of touchdowns each in the second half, but the Tigers' insurmountable lead would never be relinquished as LSU would go on to win its record sixth Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and its first-ever CFP Semifinal. Heisman winner Joe Burrow finished the day with eight total touchdowns and 493 yards passing, both Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl records, while Justin Jefferson was on the receiving end for four of those scoring plays. Jefferson also set multiple Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl records for receiving yards (227), receptions (14) and receiving touchdowns (four). In total, 18 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl records were broken or tied as the Tigers defeated the Sooners 63-28 on the way to winning the CFP National Championship in New Orleans.

Memorable Games:

2005: Iowa's Hawkeyes led by 12 before LSU rallied, but got a last-play score to defeat LSU's Tigers 30-25, capped off by Drew Tate's 56-yard touchdown pass as time expired to Warren Holloway. The game-winning grab was Holloway's first (and last) TD of his career. The touchdown came after LSU went on top by way of a Jamarcus Russell pass to Skyler Green with just 46 seconds remaining.

2008: Chad Henne threw for 373 yards and three touchdowns as Michigan's Wolverines topped the Heisman-led Gators. Tim Tebow tossed three TDs himself, and Percy Harvin averaged nearly 13 yards per carry while rushing for 165 yards, but it wasn't enough as Florida came up short, 41-35. Adrian Arrington caught the go-ahead touchdown pass with 4:12 remaining in the game, and Wolverines kicker K.C. Lopata added a field goal two minutes later to extend the lead to six.

2000: Michigan State wide receiver Plaxico Burress caught a career-high 13 passes for 185 yards and Michigan State kicked a game-winning field goal as time expired to come away with a 37-34 victory over Florida.

Top Individual Performances:

Fred Taylor, RB, Florida, 1998 -- The eventual first-round NFL draft selection set a bowl record with 243 rushing yards on a school and bowl-record 43 carries, leading the Gators to a 21-6 win over Penn State. At the time, the 243 rush yards was the second-highest total ever for a Florida running back.

Walker Gillette, WR, Richmond, 1968 -- In a wild 49-42 win over Ohio, caught 20 passes for 242 yards to set a bowl receiving record.

Buster O'Brien, QB, Richmond, 1968 -- Threw for four touchdowns along with his bowl-record 447 yards passing, and also had a 31-yard run for another score in leading the Spiders to a 49-42 win over Ohio.

Aaron Murray, QB, Georgia, 2013 -- Threw five touchdown passes, a Bulldog bowl record, including two in the final quarter to rally Georgia to a 45-31 win over Nebraska. Murray shook off two first-half interceptions, one returned for a score, to throw for a school bowl-record 427 yards against the nation's best pass defense.

Connor Shaw, QB, South Carolina, 2014 -- Played a part in all five South Carolina touchdowns throwing for three, catching one and running the final one into the end zone to ice the game with 5:48 remaining, giving the Gamecocks a 34-24 win over Wisconsin.

Last Year's Game:

Alabama quarterback Mac Jones connected with wide receiver Jerry Jeudy for an 85-yard touchdown pass on the Crimson Tide's first play from scrimmage, and Alabama (11-2, 6-2 SEC) held Michigan scoreless in the second half as it rolled to a 35-16 win over the Wolverines in the 2020 Vrbo Citrus Bowl on New Year's Day.

The game MVP, Jeudy finished the day with six catches for 204 yards, while Jones completed 16 of 25 passes for 327 yards and three touchdowns in the win. Jones also found DeVonta Smith and Miller Forristall for second-half touchdowns, and 'Bama running back Najee Harris had 24 carries for 136 yards and two scores in the victory.

Michigan (9-4, 6-3 Big Ten) bounced back from Alabama's early score and took a 10-7 lead at the end of the first on a 7-yard touchdown pass from Shea Patterson to Nick Eubanks and a 36-yard field goal from Quinn Nordin. Nordin also connected on a 42-yard field goal midway through the second quarter and a bowl-record 57-yarder on the final play of the second to give the Wolverines a 16-14 lead at halftime.

In the second half, however, Alabama's defense clamped down and held the Wolverines to just 94 yards of offense in the third and fourth quarters. Michigan never advanced past the Alabama 41-yard line in the second half, and Josh Jobe and

Other Trivia:

- The Rose Bowl Game has broken many scoring records since the inception of the College Football Playoff system. In the very first CFP Semifinal in 2015, Oregon broke the Rose Bowl Game record for points scored by one team, 59, in a 59-20 defeat of Florida State. The following year, Stanford broke the record for points in the first half with 35 against Iowa. In 2017, USC and Penn State combined for 101 points, the highest scoring Rose Bowl Game in history. That scoring record only lasted one season as Oklahoma and Georgia combined for 102 points in a double overtime thriller in the CFP Semifinal in 2018.
- The Rose Bowl Game has been played at Rose Bowl Stadium since its construction in time for the 1923 game, except for one year. In 1942, after the U.S. declared war on Japan and entered World War II, there were concerns of an attack on the West Coast, with the game and the Rose Parade considered ideal targets. The game was set to be cancelled, but on Dec. 16 Duke invited the game and opponent Oregon State to its stadium in Durham, N.C., where OSU took a 20-16 win.
- The Rose Bowl is nicknamed "The Granddaddy of Them All" since it is the oldest bowl game, having been first played in 1902 as the "Tournament East-West Football Game" and played annually since 1916. The game was originally played at Tournament Park, three miles southeast of the current stadium on the CalTech campus, before the Rose Bowl Stadium was opened in 1923.
- The Tournament of Roses Parade actually predates the Rose Bowl Game, having been staged for the first time on Jan. 1, 1890. The football game was originally added in 1902 to help fund the cost of staging the parade.

Memorable Games:

1999: Wisconsin and UCLA combined for 69 points and a Rose Bowl record 1,035 yards, with Ron Dayne rushing for 246 -- one yard shy of the bowl record -- and a record-tying four touchdowns in the Badgers' 38-31 win. UCLA quarterback Cade McNown threw for 340 yards and two scores, the fourth-best passing day in bowl history and much of the Bruins' bowl-record 538 offensive yards.

2006: In the national title game, Texas' defense held USC on a fourth-and-two at the Texas 45 with 2:09 left, and quarterback Vince Young drove the Longhorns into scoring territory before taking a quarterback draw on fourth-and-five into the end zone for an eight-yard touchdown with 0:19 left. That gave Texas a 41-38 win, snapped USC's 34-game win streak and gave the Longhorns their first national title since 1970.

2011: TCU became the first non-automatic qualifying team to play in and win the Rose Bowl, and did it even though being outweighed on the defensive front by 42 pounds per man by the Wisconsin offensive line. Andy Dalton led the Horned Frogs to their first undefeated season (13-0) since TCU's 1938 national championship season.

2018: In the 104th playing of the Rose Bowl Game, Georgia and Oklahoma sent the game to its first ever overtime period. One was not enough, however as the game went to a second overtime. Georgia blocked the Sooners field goal attempt in the second overtime period, then scored on the second play of the Bulldogs offensive series to win the game, 54-48.

Top Individual Performances:

Ron Dayne, RB, Wisconsin, 1999 & 2000 -- Rushed for a total of 446 yards and five TD's in earning back-to-back Player of the Game honors, including a 246-yard, four-TD effort in Wisconsin's 38-31 win over UCLA in 1999 and a 200-yard rush game in the Badgers' 17-9 win over Stanford in 2000. He is one of only four two-time Player of the Game winners and helped Wisconsin become the first Big Ten team to win back-to-back Rose Bowls.

Vince Young, QB, Texas, 2005 & 2006 -- Accounted for 467 yards in total offense, a Rose Bowl record and the most ever in a BCS national title game, and scored the winning touchdown on an eight-yard run with 19 seconds left in Texas' 41-38 win over USC. He had scored three touchdowns and led Texas on a winning field-goal drive one year earlier in the Longhorns' 38-37 win over Michigan, and is one of four players to win Player of the Game honors twice.

Christian McCaffrey, RB, Stanford, 2016 -- Set the Rose Bowl Game record for the most all-purpose yards in a game at 368, leading Stanford to a 45-16 victory over Iowa. On the first play of the game, McCaffrey caught a short pass and turned it into a 75-yard touchdown. He averaged 9.6 yards per carry (172 yards on 18 carries), returned a punt for a touchdown, and was selected as Offensive Player of the Game

Last Year's Game:

Oregon grinded out a 28-27 victory over Wisconsin to be named champions of the 106th Rose Bowl Game presented by Northwestern Mutual. The game was back-and-forth throughout. Just when one team appeared to have taken control, the other responded in a big way. The Ducks accumulated just 204 total yards of offense in the win, the second-fewest for a winning team in The Granddaddy of Them All. Wisconsin dominated statistically in total yards (322 to 204) and time of possession (38:03 to 21:57), but lost two key statistics: turnovers (4 to 1) and penalties (UW: 9 for 79, UO: 2 for 20). The Ducks made the most of the Badgers' miscues by turning three of the Wisconsin turnovers in 21 points. Oregon started the game with a commanding 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that culminated in a four-yard rushing score for quarterback Justin Herbert. The Badgers struck back quickly as receiver Aron Cruickshank took the ensuing kickoff 95 yards to the endzone for the first kick return score in the Rose Bowl Game since 2003. Wisconsin looked poised to take control of the game after Herbert was intercepted on the first play of the next drive, but the Ducks defense held strong and kept the Badgers to a field goal. After the teams traded punts several times, Oregon's Thomas Graham Jr., intercepted a late second quarter pass and returned it into Wisconsin territory. Three plays later, Herbert scampered to the left and found the endzone from five yards out to give Oregon a 14-10 lead. But the Badgers once again immediately responded. Wisconsin moved down the field quickly in the waning moments of the first half. With nine seconds left, quarterback Jack Coan found receiver Quintez Cephus along the goal line to give Wisconsin a 17-10 halftime lead. On the Badgers' first drive of the second half, Wisconsin punter Anthony Lotti mishandled the snap and Oregon safety Brady Breeze snatched the ball from the ground, one-handed, and raced 31 yards to the endzone to put the Ducks on top, 21-17. Wisconsin answered back. The Badgers converted a pair of fourth-and-one's en route to a two-yard touchdown run by fullback Mason Stokke to jump back in front, 24-21. After an Oregon punt, Wisconsin looked to take control again. The Badgers pushed the ball into the Oregon red zone at the beginning of the fourth quarter, but the Ducks' defense held strong and kept Wisconsin to a 27-yard field goal. With less than eight minutes remaining on the clock, another mistake would prove costly for the Badgers. Wisconsin receiver Danny Davis took the ball on a sweep to the right, but Oregon's Breeze would put his helmet right on the ball and pop it loose. The Ducks recovered and on the next play, Herbert ran 30 yards for the go-ahead score. Wisconsin had one final chance to move the ball into scoring position. The Badgers appeared to move the ball near midfield in the final three minutes, only to have a penalty stall the drive and force a punt back to the Ducks. Oregon converted a pair of first downs to ice the game in the final moments and secure the victory.

Other Trivia:

- The Sugar Bowl has featured 18 Heisman Trophy winners in its history (including Baker Mayfield, the top pick in 2018 NFL Draft), as well as 143 College Football Hall of Famers (93 players and 49 coaches). The bowl has also hosted 28 national champions in its history.
- The 1951 Sugar Bowl featured a face-off of two legendary coaches, one just beginning his career. A dominant and undefeated Oklahoma team of coach Bud Wilkinson came to New Orleans heavily favored over Kentucky, but the Wildcats and young head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant pulled off an upset with a 13-7 victory.
- The person who has been in the most different roles in Sugar Bowl history is also a coaching legend. Frank Broyles played in the Sugar Bowl with Georgia Tech in 1944, returned as a Georgia Tech assistant coach in 1953, coached the Arkansas Razorbacks in Sugar Bowls in 1962, '63 and '70, was ABC's color analyst for a string of Sugar Bowls in the '70s and '80s, and was Arkansas' AD when the Razorbacks played in the 1980 game.
- While the 2006 Sugar Bowl was a thrilling one -- West Virginia topping Georgia 38-35 -- the more significant fact was that the game was played at all. In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, which decimated the Superdome, the game was moved to the Georgia Dome and was a tremendous success. The game moved back to the rebuilt Superdome the following year.

Memorable Games:

1973: Tom Clements completes a third-down pass to backup tight end Robin Weber in the final minute of play, sealing a national title for Notre Dame with a 24-23 win over top-ranked Alabama.
1979: Alabama's Barry Krauss completed a legendary goal-line stand with a fourth-down tackle against Penn State, lifting Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide to the national championship with a 14-7 win in a No. 1 vs. No. 2 matchup.
1981: Georgia running back Herschel Walker separated his shoulder early in the game, but still managed to rush for 150 yards and two touchdowns to lift the Bulldogs to a 17-10 win over Notre Dame to cap an undefeated national championship season.
2000: In the first BCS National Championship game in New Orleans, Virginia Tech's Michael Vick was a show-stopper, but Peter Warrick's performance lifted Bobby Bowden's Florida State squad to a 46-29 win and the national title.

Top Individual Performances:

Tim Tebow, QB, Florida, 2010 -- Closed his career with a record-setting performance, throwing for a Sugar Bowl-record 482 yards and three touchdowns in a 51-24 blowout of Cincinnati.
Peter Warrick, WR, Florida State, 2000 -- Had 160 receiving yards and two big returns, but the biggest play was a 43-yard reception from Chris Weinke in the fourth quarter that iced the Seminoles' 46-29 win over Virginia Tech and the national title. He had a 64-yard touchdown grab earlier.
Dan Marino, QB, Pittsburgh, 1982 -- Threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to tight end John Brown on a fourth-and-five with 0:42 left, giving the Panthers a 24-20 win over Georgia.
Monk Simons, RB, Tulane, 1935 -- In the inaugural Sugar Bowl game, returned a kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown to ignite hometown Tulane to a 20-14 victory over Temple after the Green Wave trailed 14-0 earlier.
Ezekiel Elliott, RB, Ohio State, 2015 -- Rushed for a bowl-record 230 yards, including an 85-yard TD dash with 3:24 to go in the game to clinch a 42-35 victory for the Buckeyes in the first-ever Playoff Semifinal in the Sugar Bowl.

Last Year's Game:

Jake Fromm hooked up early and often with George Pickens as No. 5 Georgia defeated No. 7 Baylor in the 86th Allstate Sugar Bowl. Pickens, honored as the game's Most Outstanding Player, caught 12 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown. He made 11 of those catches for 165 yards and the score in the first half as Georgia built a 19-0 halftime lead. He also was on the receiving end of Fromm's first eight completions and caught nine of his first 10 completions. Fromm closed his career with a bang, completing 20 of 30 passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns. Georgia totaled 380 yards, including 92 yards rushing from running back Zamir White. Baylor rallied with two third-quarter touchdowns but a key turnover gave the Dawgs a short-field that they took advantage of with a successful fake field goal and a White TD run to make it 26-7 and all but clinch victory.

Other Trivia:

- The 1955 Gator Bowl was the first bowl to be televised coast-to-coast.
- The 1994 Tennessee vs. Virginia Tech game was played at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville due to Gator Bowl renovations in Jacksonville. The Tennessee checkerboard was displayed on the University of Florida's home turf.
- Archie Manning played the 1971 Gator Bowl with a broken arm when Auburn beat Ole Miss 35-28
- In 2001 Michael Vick played his final college game against Clemson and announced after the game he would be leaving Virginia Tech for the NFL.
- Alabama and North Carolina played the last game in the old Gator Bowl in 1993 before renovation for the new stadium, now called EverBank Field.

Top Individual Performances:

Floyd Little, RB -- Syracuse, 1966 vs. Tennessee, rushed 29 times for 216 yards and a touchdown in an 18-12 loss to the Volunteers

Graham Harrell, QB -- Texas Tech, 2008, completed 44-of-63 passes for 407 yards and three TD's in Tech's 31-28 victory over Virginia

Andre Rison, WR -- Michigan State, 2008, caught nine passes for 252 yards and three scores in a losing 34-27 effort against Georgia

Quincy Enunwa, WR -- Nebraska, 2014, his 99-yard touchdown reception is the longest pass reception and ties the longest play from scrimmage in NCAA bowl history

Last Year's Game:

The Volunteers scored twice in a 30-second span late, using an onside kick to help escape a 13-point deficit, and then held on to stun Indiana 23-22 in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. The Hoosiers looked to be in control in the second half after scoring two touchdowns in a 1:03 span, the second one coming on Jamar Johnson's 63-yard interception return, and later adding a pair of field goals. Indiana was up 22-9 before Tennessee shocked most of the nearly 62,000 fans on hand. Quavaris Crouch scored on a 1-yard plunge and then fellow running back Eric Gray recovered a surprise onside kick that barely went the mandatory 10 yards. Gray scored from 16 yards out a few plays later to put the Vols on top for good.

Memorable Games:

2015: In a back-and-forth game that saw six lead changes, Wisconsin RB Melvin Gordon rushed for a bowl record 251 yards to carry the Badgers to a 34-31 overtime win against the Auburn Tigers. Badger coaching legend Barry Alvarez led the team in an interim role as he put his own stamp on the team, including converting 4-of-4 fourth down attempts during the game. In his return to the field one last time, his players carried him off the field following the emotional victory.

2013: South Carolina quarterback Dylan Thompson, who didn't start and divided time with Connor Shaw, found Bruce Ellington with a 32-yard game-winning touchdown pass with only 0:11 left, giving the Gamecocks a 33-28 victory over Michigan. Both Thompson and Shaw had two touchdowns passes in the win which saw four lead changes in the final quarter.

2012: One of the most recent edition of the Outback Bowl became one of the closest, as Michigan State finally prevailed in a 33-30 triple-overtime decision on Dan Conroy's 28-yard field goal. The game marked only the third time in NCAA bowl history that a game went into three overtimes.

2010: In what has been described as one of the most exciting college football games ever, Auburn and Northwestern combined for more than 1,000 total offensive and broke or tied 32 Outback Bowl records as well as several NCAA bowl records, before Auburn finally prevailed 38-35 in overtime. Northwestern ran 115 offensive plays, an all-time bowl-game record.

2003: The first appearance by a home-state team (Florida) turned into a wide-open shootout, with the Gators and Michigan trading the lead eight different times in the Wolverines' 38-30 victory. Michigan running back Chris Perry set a school and Outback Bowl record with four rushing touchdowns.

2000: Despite Drew Brees' record-setting performance as Purdue's quarterback, Georgia rallied from a 25-0 first-half deficit and posted a 28-25 overtime victory. At the time, it was the biggest comeback in NCAA bowl history.

Outback Bowl

Top Individual Performances:

Melvin Gordon, RB, Wisconsin, 2015 – Rushed for an Outback Bowl record 251 yards and a 7.4 average, adding three TDs in the Badgers' overtime win over Auburn.

Drew Brees, QB, Purdue, 2000 -- Threw for 378 yards and set or tied six Outback Bowl records, and threw for three touchdowns in the first quarter alone and four in the first half. But Georgia still rallied to take a 28-25 win over the Boilermakers.

Jamie Morris, RB, Michigan, & Bobby Humphrey, RB, Alabama, 1988 -- In only the game's second staging, the two running backs put the then-Hall of Fame bowl on the map, combining for 383 rushing yards and five touchdowns in Michigan's narrow 28-24 win. Morris also had a 77-yard scoring run, still the longest in the bowl's history.

Mike Bobo, QB, Georgia, 1998 -- Completed 19 straight passes, setting a bowl record, on the way to the game's most accurate performance ever by a quarterback. His 26-of-28 passing effort helped the Bulldogs take a 33-6 win over Wisconsin. Hines Ward had 12 of those catches.

Last Year's Game:

Minnesota earned only its second New Year's Day Bowl appearance since 1961 after a Cinderella ten win season while Auburn entered the game after defeating rival Alabama and playing one of the toughest schedules in the country. The teams traded field goals early before the Tigers Igbinoghene returned a kickoff 96 yds for the games first TD. The teams traded touchdowns through the end of the third quarter for a 24-24 tie. With ten minutes remaining Minnesota QB Tanner Morgan found Tyler Johnson for a 73 yd TD pass and the the Gophers ball control offense never allowed Auburn to get the ball back running out the last 8:38 of the game. The Gophers posted 215 yards on the ground and 494 yds of offense on the day.

Other Trivia:

-Nineteen Ohio State and Notre Dame players that played in the 2015-16 Fiesta Bowl were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft. That's more than any other bowl game this past season.

-The Fiesta Bowl trophy has the unique features of an inlaid compass in the base, an internal LED lighting system and its base and platform carved from marble. It stands almost four feet high and weighs 200 pounds, and has 38.6 karats of diamonds encrusting the football stripes.

-Home-state favorite Arizona State posted one of the biggest yardage totals in NCAA bowl history in the 1972 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, rolling up 718 yards against Missouri on a 49-35 win in just the second game in bowl history.

-Over the last eight years, the Fiesta Bowl has donated more than $12.5 million to the Arizona community focusing on the core pillars of youth, sports and education.

Memorable Games:

- 1987: Penn State's Pete Gifopoulos intercepted a Vinny Testaverde pass at the PSU one-yard-line with nine seconds left, assuring the Nittany Lions of a 14-10 win over Miami and their second national title in five years.
- 2003: Called by some the greatest game in college football history, Ohio State held Miami three times from the one-yard-line in the second overtime to take a 31-24 win and claim the Buckeyes' fifth consensus national championship. It was the first OT game in Fiesta Bowl history and the first in the then-five-year history of the BCS.
- 2007: Boise State used a series of trick plays, including a halfback pass for an overtime TD and a "Statue of Liberty" on a two-point conversion, to pave the way to a 43-42 win over Oklahoma. The teams combined for 22 points in the final 86 seconds of regulation to send the game into overtime.

Top Individual Performances:

- Curt Warner, RB, Penn State, 1980 & 1982 -- One of only two players named Offensive Player of the Game twice, scored TD's on his first carry in both games and ran for 300 yards and three scores in leading Penn State past Ohio State (155 yards) in 1980 and Southern Cal (145 yards) in 1982.
- Steve Smith, CB, Oregon, 2002 -- Intercepted three passes from two Colorado quarterbacks, setting a bowl record, and led a defense that held the Buffaloes to 49 rush yards while recording four sacks.
- Peter Tom Willis, QB, Florida State, 1990 -- Threw for a bowl-record five touchdowns and 442 yards in leading the Seminoles past Nebraska 41-17. He led FSU to a 41-3 advantage in the middle two quarters.

Last Year's Game:

No. 3 Clemson overcame an early 16-0 deficit to beat No. 2 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the PlayStation® Fiesta Bowl. Trevor Lawrence had a memorable 67-yard TD run and Travis Etienne scored the game-winning 34-yard TD catch with 1:49 remaining to advance to the CFP National Championship Game.

Turn LEFT from hotel parking lot and merge onto the Florida Turnpike West. Follow Florida's Turnpike to Turnpike Access in Miami Gardens and take exit 2X to the stadium

Other Trivia:

- In the remaining years that the Capital One Orange Bowl does not host a College Football Playoff Semifinal as part of the 12-year CFP deal, the Capital One Orange Bowl will feature the ACC champion (or a replacement if the champion is in the CFP) against the highest-ranked available non-conference champion from the Big Ten or SEC or Notre Dame.

- In 1935, the first wire photo ever transmitted across the U.S. was from the first Orange Bowl game. It was transmitted by the Associated Press.

- The Orange Bowl is tied for the second-oldest bowl game in NCAA history, behind only the Rose Bowl, with its first game on Jan. 1, 1935.

- The 1965 Orange Bowl was the first major bowl game to be televised entirely in prime time.

- 2013 was the 20th time the Orange Bowl hosted a national champion or national championship game. A total of 19 Heisman Trophy winners have played in games hosted by the Orange Bowl.

Memorable Games:

1965: In the first night game in Orange Bowl history, Texas upset No. 1-ranked Alabama 21-17, stopping 'Bama quarterback Joe Namath inches short of the goal line on a crucial fourth down play late in the game. Namath, who didn't start due to a knee injury, passed for 255 yards and two TDs to earn MVP honors. Alabama was still named national champion.

1984: In what is considered one of the greatest games in college football history, Miami won its first national championship, defeating top-ranked Nebraska 31-30 when the Cornhuskers missed on a two-point conversion with 0:48 remaining. Nebraska had rallied from a 17-0 first quarter deficit.

1991: Colorado earned its first national championship 10-9 over Notre Dame, when ND's Raghbir "Rocket" Ismail had a 91-yard punt return for a touchdown nullified by a late clipping penalty with just 43 seconds remaining.

1994: Bobby Bowden and Florida State earned their first national championship 18-16 over Nebraska when true freshman Scott Bentley kicked a 22-yard field goal with :21 remaining. However, the game wasn't over until Nebraska's 45-yard field goal try sailed wide left with :01 left.

Top Individual Performances:

Frank Sinkwich, QB, Georgia, 1942 -- Passed for three touchdowns and ran for another to lead Georgia to a 40-26 win over TCU. The future Heisman Trophy winner chalked up 355 yards of total offense, a bowl record that stood until 2012.

Lee Roy Jordan, LB, Alabama, 1963 -- Recorded an incredible 31 tackles as Alabama shut out Oklahoma 17-0 in front of President John F. Kennedy, one of five presidents to have attended an Orange Bowl game.

Johnny Rodgers, RB/WR, Nebraska, 1973 -- Ran for three touchdowns, caught a touchdown pass and threw for another to account for five scores in just three quarters as Nebraska took a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in Bob Devaney's final game as Nebraska coach.

Geno Smith, QB, and Tavon Austin, WR, West Virginia, 2012 -- Smith's six touchdown passes and Austin's four receiving touchdowns tied all-time bowl records in leading WVU to an all-time bowl record 70-point outburst. Smith, who also rushed for a touchdown, threw for an Orange Bowl record 407 yards.

Sammy Watkins, WR, Clemson, 2014 -- Set Orange Bowl records with 16 receptions, tied for the fifth most in NCAA bowl history, and 227 yards gained receiving, and also scored twice as Clemson beat Ohio State 40-35.

Last Year's Game:

Lamical Perine made the most of his opportunities, scoring three first-half touchdowns to lead the Florida Gators past the Virginia Cavaliers 36-28 in the Capital One Orange Bowl in front of 65,157 fans. Perine finished with 181 all-purpose yards, racking up 138 yards rushing on 13 carries and two touchdowns, while also compiling 43 yards receiving on five receptions, including a touchdown to earn Orange Bowl MVP honors. Florida (11-2) also got a solid game from quarterback Kyle Trask, who finished with 305 yards on 24-of-39 passing and a touchdown, while also scoring on a 1-yard run. With the win, Florida improves to 4-0 all time at the Orange Bowl, beating Georgia Tech 27-12 in 1967, Syracuse 31-10 in 1999 and Maryland 56-23 in 2002. The Gators also won the 2009 BCS National Championship in Miami, defeating Oklahoma 24-14.

Other Notable Information:

- The playoff preserves the excitement and significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.
- The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head- to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.
- The two teams winning the playoff semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. That game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

College Football Playoff National Championship

2019 CFP National Championship Game:

The No. 1 LSU Tigers defeated the No. 3 Clemson Tigers, 42-25, capturing its first College Football Playoff National Championship in program history and fourth national crown overall (1958, 2003, 2007). LSU's victory marked the first time in the CFP era that the top-ranked team went on to win the national title.

In the contest, Heisman Trophy winner and senior Joe Burrow became the first quarterback in FBS history to throw 60 touchdown passes in a single season, as LSU snapped defending national champion Clemson's 29-game winning streak.

Burrow, who was voted Offensive Player of the Game, completed 31-of-49 passes for 463 yards, establishing a new CFP National Championship record. His five passing touchdowns and six total TDs (one rushing) also broke the previous highs in the CFP title game.

Sophomore WR Ja'Marr Chase caught nine passes for 221 yards and two touchdowns for LSU, while junior WR Justin Jefferson added 106 yards on nine catches. Junior TE Thaddeus Moss also scored twice with five receptions for 36 yards.

Patrick Queen was named Defensive Player of the Game after leading LSU with eight tackles, including 2.5 behind the line of scrimmage. Fellow junior LB Jacob Phillips added eight stops, while junior S JaCoby Stevens had seven tackles and senior CB Kristian Fulton pitched in six.

LSU completed the 2019-20 campaign with a perfect 15-0 record, joining the 2018-19 Clemson Tigers as the second team in the modern era to accomplish the feat.

Prominent area tourist attractions:

Atlantis Resort, Straw Market, Pompey Museum, The Retreat Gardens, Arawak Cay, Rawson Square, Ardastra Gardens and Zoo, Junkanoo Museum, The Caves, Fort Montagu.

DIRECTIONS (Note: The bowl recommends using taxis or tour buses to travel within Nassau. All driving in the Bahamas is done from the left-hand side of the road.)

Other Trivia:

- The Bahamas Bowl is the longest-running international FBS bowl game in history as the game will hold its' seventh edition in 2021.
- The Bahamas Bowl is the only international FBS bowl game and the first outside of the U.S. or Canada since the 1937 Bacardi Bowl in Havana, Cuba, a 7-7 tie between Auburn and Villanova.
- The bowl's first two champions – WKU (2014) and Western Michigan (2015) - won their respective conference titles the next season. WKU won C-USA in 2015 and 2016, while WMU won the 2016 MAC title with an undefeated regular season and played in a New Year's Six bowl.
- In 2014, the finish of the inaugural bowl, in which Central Michigan went 75 yards on a pass play and three laterals to score a TD on the final play of regulation, was selected the top play of the bowl season by ESPN's SportsCenter and was a finalist for an ESPY Best Play award.
- Thomas A. Robinson National Stadium, built in 2012 as a gift to the Bahamas from the Peoples Republic of China, was named for the Bahamian track hero who competed in four Olympic Games.

Memorable Games:

2014: Western Kentucky watched a 35-point lead whittled down to one point on the final play of regulation, and Central Michigan scored the final five touchdowns of the game including a three-lateral 75-yard miracle final play. But the Chippewas went for the win on a two-point conversion with no time left, and WKU's Wonderful Terry batted the pass away to give the Hilltoppers a pulsating 49-48 win in the inaugural game.

Top Individual Performances

Brandon Doughty, QB, Western Kentucky, 2014 -- Threw for five touchdowns, giving him a nation-leading 49 for the season, and 486 yards, completing 31-of-42 passes in leading the Hilltoppers to a 49-48 win over Central Michigan.

Cooper Rush, QB, Central Michigan, 2014 -- Threw seven touchdown passes, the most in NCAA bowl history, and had five TD throws in the final 12 minutes in leading the Chippewas to five straight scores in the fourth quarter, while throwing for 485 yards in a losing cause in CMU's 49-48 loss to Western Kentucky.

Titus Davis, WR, Central Michigan, 2014 -- Caught six passes for 147 yards and four touchdowns, including the final 15 yards on a three-lateral play with no time remaining, that pulled the Chippewas within one point in what became a 49-48 loss to Western Kentucky.

Jamauri Bogan, RB, Western Michigan, 2015 -- Ran for 215 yards and four touchdowns, powering Western Michigan past Middle Tennessee 45-31 for its first bowl victory.

Dorian Brown, RB, Ohio, 2017 -- Ran for 152 yards on just 12 carries and tied a bowl record with four touchdown runs, which propelled the Bobcats to a 41-6 victory over UAB.

Jaret Patterson, RB, Buffalo, 2019 -- Carried the ball a bowl-record 32 times for 173 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Bulls to their first bowl victory in school history, 31-9 over Charlotte.

Last Year's Game:

Buffalo running back Jaret Patterson rushed a bowl-record 32 times for 173 yards and two touchdowns to help secure the program's first-ever bowl victory, as the Bulls defeated Charlotte 31-9 in the 2019 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl. Patterson was selected as the Offensive Player of the Game and punctuated the victory with his second touchdown run with 1:43 left in the contest. The Bulls' final drive went for 16 plays and spanned 9:07. Patterson accounted for 81 rushing yards on 13 attempts during the drive, as he was handed the ball on the first nine plays of the possession to ice the game. Buffalo defensive end Malcolm Koonce was awarded Defensive Player of the Game honors thanks to his five tackles, two sacks and one forced fumble. Koonce's strip sack of Charlotte quarterback Chris Reynolds was recovered by the Bulls' Ledarius Mack with six seconds remaining in the second quarter and helped the Bulls preserve a 17-0 lead heading into halftime. Buffalo held a slight 282-278 advantage in total offense, and the combined 560 yards were the fewest in Bahamas Bowl history. Charlotte defensive end Markees Watts led all players with 11 tackles, while safety Marquavis Gibbs tallied an interception for the 49ers. Buffalo linebacker James Patterson (Jaret's twin brother) also had an interception for the Bulls. After forcing a three-and-out on Charlotte's first drive of the game, Buffalo marched 61 yards in seven plays to go up 7-0 at the 9:12 mark of the first quarter when Antonio Nunn caught a 12-yard TD pass from Kyle Vantrease. The Bulls went up 14-0 with 3:33 left in the first half on a one-yard sneak by Vantrease. A Buffalo interception set up a 31-yard field goal by Alex McNulty that put the Bulls up 17-0 with 1:25 remaining in the half. Patterson added to the Bulls' lead at 5:22 in the third with a six-yard touchdown run for a 24-0 advantage. Charlotte got on the scoreboard with 2:20 left in the third on a 51-yard touchdown strike from Reynolds to Victor Tucker. The 49ers two-point attempt came up short, which kept the score at 24-6. A 32-yard field goal by Charlotte's Jonathan Cruz cut the deficit to 24-9 with 10:50 to go

Memorable Games:

- 2003: In a wild shootout that featured three overtimes and a helmet-throwing brawl postgame, Timmy Chang passed for 475 yards and five scores, leading Hawaii to a 54-48 win over Houston. The teams combined for 1,158 offensive yards, 81 on Houston quarterback Kevin Kolb's TD pass to Vincent Marshall with 0:34 left to force overtime.
- 2006: Hawaii quarterback Colt Brennan broke the NCAA single-season record for touchdown passes, throwing five in the second half in a 41-24 win over Arizona State. Brennan finished the season with 58 TD passes, and went 33-of-42 for 559 yards in the game. Jason Rivers had 14 receptions for 308 yards, the most in a bowl game since 1937.
- 2007: East Carolina's Chris Johnson set an NCAA bowl record with 408 all-purpose yards, and Ben Hartman kicked a field goal as time expired to give ECU a 41-38 win over Boise State.
- 2010: Tulsa grounded the nation's No. 1 passing offense forcing six first-half turnovers in a 62-35 victory over No. 24 Hawai'i. The Golden Hurricane returned two interceptions for touchdowns, both for 54 yards on consecutive drives in the second quarter.
- 2011: No. 21 Southern Miss overcame a shaky start to earn its school-record 12th victory in a 24-17 win over Nevada. The Golden Eagles shut down the Wolf Pack's potent Pistol offense in the second half and Austin Davis completed a late touchdown to Kelvin Bolden for the game-winner.
- 2016: The hometown Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors made their seventh Hawai'i Bowl appearance and first since 2010 with a come-from-behind 52-35 victory over Middle Tennessee. Dru Brown passed for 274 yards and four touchdowns, Diocemy Saint Juste rushed for 170 yards, John Ursua caught six passes for 120 yards, and Trayvon Henderson returned an interception 68 yards for a touchdown.

Top Individual Performances:

- Jason Rivers, WR, Hawaii, 2006 -- Caught 14 passes for 308 yards and two touchdowns, with his yardage setting an all-time NCAA bowl record in Hawaii's win over Arizona State.
- Colt Brennan, QB, Hawaii, 2006 -- Threw for 559 yards on 33-of-42 passing and had five TD passes in the second half in a 41-24 win over Arizona State. Brennan set an NCAA record for single-season TD passes (58) during the game.
- Chris Johnson, RB, East Carolina, 2007 -- Compiled 408 all-purpose yards -- 223 rushing, 32 receiving, 153 on kick returns -- to set an NCAA bowl record and help lead East Carolina to a 41-38 win over Boise State.
- Jimmy Clausen, QB, Notre Dame, 2008 -- Completed 22 of 26 passes for 401 yards and five scores in leading the Fighting Irish to a 49-21 win over Hawaii. Damarus Johnson, WR, Tulsa, 2010 - Broke loose for a career-high 326 all-purpose yards to break the NCAA career record and Tulsa upset 24th-ranked Hawai'i, 62-35. Johnson earned bowl MVP honors, rushing for 98 yards and a touchdown; catching four passes for 101 yards and another score; and also had five kickoff returns for 109 yards and an 18-yard punt return. Rashaad Reynolds, DB, Oregon State, 2013 – Returned two fumbles for touchdowns in the first half as the Beavers raced out to a 31-6 halftime lead over Boise State en route to a 38-23 victory. Dru Brown, QB, Hawai'i, 2016 - Accounted for a bowl-tying record five touchdowns (4 passing, 1 rushing) in UH's 52-35 victory over Middle Tennessee. Brown finished with 274 yards passing as UH erased a 14-0 deficit. Jaylon Ferguson, LB, Louisiana Tech, 2018 – Had a total of 5 tackles: four solo, 2.5 sacks and 2.5 tackles for a loss. He surpassed Terrell Suggs' and became the NCAA career leader in sacks.

Last Year's Game:

Hawai'i scored 31 points in the first half taking a 31 – 24 lead going into the locker room at halftime. BYU, led by QB Zach Wilson's 274 passing yards combined with 72 yards rushing, battled back to take a 34 – 31 lead early in the fourth quarter on a Jake Oldroyd 20-yard field goal. A key momentum swing took place when BYU's Zach Wilson was hit mid-air near the goal line by Eugene Ford, fumbling the ball into the end zone. It was recovered by Hawai'i's Manly Williams. In UH's next to last possession of the game, Cole McDonald took the Rainbow Warriors 71-yards in three plays capping the drive off with a 24-yard game-winning touchdown pass to Nick Mardner. BYU's last chance for a comeback, ended when Zach Wilson's pass was picked off by Hawai'i's Khoury Bethley. Hawai'i's win marked their fifth Hawai'i Bowl win in nine appearances.

Other Trivia:

- In 1995, Toledo and Nevada played in what was the first overtime game on the FBS level. The existing OT rules were put into effect only for bowl games that season and the Rockets and Wolf Pack were the only teams that needed the extra time in the postseason, as Toledo prevailed 40-37. Overtime became standard for regular-season games the next season.

-In 2002, Katie Hnida of New Mexico became the first woman to play in an NCAA FBS game when she entered during the first quarter to attempt an extra point. The try, which was low, was blocked by UCLA during the Bruins'27-13 victory.

-The Las Vegas Bowl commemorated its 25-year milestone in 2016 by inducting a class of four individuals into its Hall of Fame during game week. The group included Steve Jackson (Oregon State running back, 2003), Anthony Calvillo (Utah State quarterback, 1992), John Robinson (UNLV head coach, 2000) and Rossi Ralenkotter (Founding Father).

Memorable Games:

- 1992: Featuring the champions of the Mid-American and Big West Conferences, the inaugural game was arguably its biggest nail-biter, as Bowling Green held on to record a dramatic 35-34 victory over Nevada. The Los Angeles Times dubbed it "the most exciting bowl game of the year."
- 2006: No. 19 BYU, the first Mountain West Conference champion to play in the game, rolls past Oregon 38-8 in what is still the largest crowd to ever witness a team sporting event in the state of Nevada – 44,615, thanks to 4,100 temporary bleacher end-zone seats.
- 2011: In the final college game for the sport's all-time winningest quarterback – Boise State's Kellen Moore – the high-powered Broncos routed Arizona State in head coach Dennis Erickson's finale, 56-24, but both sides featured big plays. BSU's Doug Martin opened the game with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown while ASU's Rashad Ross nearly equaled that feat by leading off the second half with a 98-yard kickoff return for a score. The third length-of-the-field play came when Sun Devil QB Brock Osweiler saw his pass attempt intercepted by Bronco DB Jamar Taylor and returned 100 yards the other way for a back-breaking highlight.

Top Individual Performances:

- Doug Martin, Boise State, RB, and Rashad Ross, RB, Arizona State, 2011 -- In a game filled with big plays, Martin and Ross had the two longest. Martin opened the game with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, while Ross opened the second half with a 98-yard kickoff return for another score. Boise State eventually had more big plays and took a 56-24 win.
- Bishop Sankey, Washington RB, 2012 -- Rushed for 205 yards and a score and also caught six passes for 74 yards, accounting for 279 of the Huskies' 447 offensive yards, but it came in a losing effort as Boise State took a 28-26 win.
- Eathyn Manumaleuna, DL, BYU, 2007 -- Broke through and blocked a field goal on the last play of the game, helping the Cougars escape with a 17-16 win over UCLA.
- Willie Tuitama, QB, Arizona, 2008 -- Threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in leading the Wildcats to their first bowl win in a decade with a 31-21 win over BYU.
- Travis Wilson, QB, Utah, 2014 -- Completed 17-of-26 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown and rushed for 91 yards and three scores to lead the Utes to an easy 45-10 win over Colorado State.

Last Year's Game:

The Washington Huskies sent coach Chris Petersen into retirement the same way he opened his head coaching career – with a bowl win. Washington dominated No. 19 Boise State – which Petersen earned his first bowl victory with in his first season as a head coach in 2006 – as Jacob Eason threw for 210 yards and a touchdown and Elijah Molden was named MVP after intercepting a pass and forcing a fumble, during a 38-7 victory over the Broncos. Toward the end of the game, and as Petersen made his way across the field to shake Boise State coach Bryan Harsin's hand, chants from both fan bases could be heard for the former Broncos coach. "Well, this is never about any one person. It's never about any one player. It's a team game," Petersen said. "We were excited to come to the ball game but when we saw the opponent, I was lukewarm on the opponent, just because of all the people and the connections and all those things, it is what it is. I'm just proud of these guys, I really am. I just thought (the matchup) would make it more about me, and it's never about one person, it's just not. It's about these guys playing really, really well." Which they did, as the Huskies got contributions all around in the bowl's most lopsided loss in five years. Richard Newton rushed for 69 yards with a short touchdown run and threw a touchdown pass for the Huskies, and Salvon Ahmed added two touchdown runs. Myles Bryant added an interception, and six different defenders had a tackle for loss. "It was awesome, just the way this whole team played," Eason said. The Huskies wasted little time in seizing momentum by jumping out to a 17-0 halftime lead behind a methodical offense and tenacious defense that registered an interception of Hank Bachmeier's pass that was thrown up for grabs on the opening possession and easily picked off by Bryant. Andre Baccellia took a slant from Eason 17 yards into the end zone for the opening score. The Huskies extended their lead to 24-0 early in the third quarter on a 2-yard touchdown blast by Newton after Molden picked off a screen pass by Bachmeier. Jaylon Henderson, who replaced Bachmeier in the second half after the freshman threw his second interception, threw for 48 yards and a touchdown for the Broncos, who lost for the first time in five appearances in the Las Vegas Bowl. Bachmeier, who started the first seven games before sustaining a hip injury against Hawaii, was 15 of 26 for 119 yards.

Other Trivia:

-This contest marks the 17th college football game held at the current Yankee Stadium.

-The original Yankee Stadium hosted many collegiate games from its opening in 1923, including the annual Notre Dame-Army game from 1925-46 and 1969. The 1928 game was the famed "Win One for the Gipper" matchup.

- The New York Football Giants called the original Yankee Stadium home from 1956-1973, and hosted the "Greatest Game Ever Played" between the Giants & Colts on Dec. 28, 1958.

Historical Game Summaries:

- 2010: The inaugural Pinstripe Bowl featured a controversial finish, after Kansas State receiver Adrian Hilburn caught a 30-yard TD from quarterback Carson Coffman with 1:13 left to cut a Syracuse lead to 36-34. But before KSU could attempt a tying two-point conversion, Hilburn was flagged for excessive celebration after giving a military-style salute toward the back of the end zone and a 15-yard penalty was assessed on the conversion. The two-point pass fell incomplete and Syracuse ran out the clock on its ensuing possession.
- 2011: Jawan Jamison, Rutgers redshirt freshman, ran for 134 yards and a pair of TDs as the Scarlet Knights won their fifth straight bowl game, 27-13, over Iowa State in front of a predominantly pro-Rutgers crowd. It was Rutgers' second Yankee Stadium win of the season, having defeated Army, 27-12, one month earlier.
- 2012: Heavy snow made things tough for both teams, but Syracuse – which plays its home games indoors – handled the conditions better and rolled to a 38-14 victory over West Virginia in its final game as a Big East Conference member. NEPB MVP Prince-Tyson Gulley ran for 213 yards and three touchdowns for the Orange.
- 2013: Notre Dame broke a 13-13 halftime tie by outscoring Rutgers 16-3 in the second half in a 29-16 victory. Fighting Irish QB Tommy Rees went 27-of-47 for 319 yards and Kyle Brindza tied an NCAA bowl record with five field goals. The eight field goals by the teams was also an NCAA bowl record.
- 2014: A bowl-record sellout crowd saw the first overtime contest in NEPB history. After a B.C. touchdown and missed PAT on the opening possession of overtime, Penn State QB Christian Hackenberg tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Kyle Carter to tie the game, 30-30. Kicker Sam Ficken, who tied the game with a 45-yard field goal with 0:20 left in regulation, clinched the Nittany Lions' victory with a "walk-off" PAT.
- 2015: Duke defeated Indiana, 44-41, in OT. Co-MVPs Thomas Sirk and Shaun Wilson led the Blue Devils to their first bowl win since 1961 as Indiana kicker Griffin Oakes missed a game-tying, 38-yd. overtime FG att. Multiple NEPB records were established, including most pts. (Duke), total yds. (Indiana, 667), passing yds. (Nate Sudfeld, Indiana, 389), longest run (Wilson, 85 yds.) and longest kickoff return (Wilson, 98 yds.).
- 2016: Northwestern RB Justin Jackson earned MVP honors as the Wildcats defeated Pitt, 31-24, on a cold Yankee Stadium afternoon. Jackson ran for 3TD and gained 224 yards, falling three yards shy of tying the NEPB's all-time single-game rushing record. Despite losing QB Nathan Peterman and RB James Conner to injury, the Panthers led 24-21 early in the fourth quarter before Northwestern answered with a touchdown and field goal. Safety Kyle Queiro sealed the Wildcats' win with an interception on Pitt's final drive.
- 2017: Despite being outgained in total yards, 383-200, Iowa defeated Boston College, 27-20, in temps that hovered in the low 20s. The Hawkeyes forced three turnovers while not committing any themselves. N.J. native Akrum Wadley, who had an NEPB-record 283 all-purpose yards (22 car., 88 yds.; 2 rec., 24 yds.; and 171 kick ret. yds.) earned MVP honors for Iowa in his final college game. Eagles' RB AJ Dillon ran for a game-high 157 yards on 32 carries with 1 TD, while TE Tommy Sweeney caught a TD and led the game with both 7 rec. and 137 yards. Iowa CB Josh Jackson sealed the game with an INT with 1:18 left in the fourth quarter.
- 2018: Led by sophomore running back and Pinstripe Bowl MVP Jonathan Taylor (205 yards and 1 TD), Wisconsin routed Miami, 35-3, in both schools' first appearances in the NEPB. Carrying the Badgers to a wire-to-wire victory, the defense forced five turnovers that led to 21 points. UW controlled the clock, possessing the ball for nearly 40 minutes, while collecting 406 yards of total offense.
- 2019: Michigan State edged Wake Forest, 27-21, in the 10th annual Pinstripe Bowl. Down 7-3 in the first quarter, Spartans senior DT Mike Panasiuk returned a 14-yard INT for a touchdown to put them up 10-7. Despite a 21-20 Wake lead at the half, Michigan St. captain and NEPB MVP QB Brian Lewerke (passing: 26-for-37, 320 yards, 1 TD; rushing: 46 yards, 1 TD) put the Spartans on top for good with a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Cody White.

2019	Kenny Pickett, QB, Pittsburgh

Memorable Games:

- 2014: Rutgers' first season in the Big Ten Conference ended on a high note, with the Scarlet Knights rolling to a 40-21 win over North Carolina in the inaugural game. Freshman running back Josh Hicks ran for 202 yards and a touchdown, senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 184 yards and two scores and another freshman, Robert Martin, ran for 100 yards and two touchdowns. The Knights led 40-7 before UNC posted two late touchdowns.
- 2015: The 2015 game saw a victory for the University of Minnesota Gophers over the Central Michigan University Chippewas, representing the MAC conference, 21-14. The MVP of the game, UMN's QB Mitch Leidner, led a comeback in the fourth quarter running 13 yards for a touchdown with 4:26 remaining.
- 2016: Boston College won its first bowl game since 2007 in snapping a five-game postseason losing streak, taking advantage of Maryland's mistakes to claim victory in the Quick Lane Bowl. The Eagles built a 36-13 lead early in the second half, then fended off a late Terrapins' rally to complete their third 7-6 season in four years under head coach Steve Addazio.
- 2017: The 2017 Duke Blue Devils had a promising start to their season, at 4-0, before going on a six-game losing streak to ultimately finish out their season 7-6. However, their 36-14 victory over the NIU Huskies ended their season on a three-game winning streak. Duke's dominant 2017 Quick Lane Bowl performance under head coach David Cutcliffe was the 13th bowl game in Duke program history and the fifth bowl victory. The win was also the first time Duke won consecutive bowl game appearances since 1945 and 1955, after their 2015 Pinstripe Bowl win.
- 2019: In front of the biggest Quick Lane Bowl crowd to date, the Pitt Panthers and Eastern Michigan Eagles played a close, electrifying game that came down to literally the final seconds. With 47 seconds left on the Eagles 25 yard line, Pickett hit wide receiver Taysir Mack for the go-ahead touchdown giving the Panthers a 34-30 lead. After Eastern Michigan was unable to convert on a 4th down play, Pitt ended the game by taking a knee as time expired giving the Panthers a 34-30 Quick Lane Bowl victory.

Top Individual Performances:

- Josh Hicks, RB, Rutgers, 2014 - - Ran for 202 yards and a touchdown to cap his freshman season and lead the Scarlet Knights to a 40-21 win over North Carolina in the inaugural game. Hicks, named the game MVP, capped a 91-yard first-half drive with a 21-yard touchdown run that gave Rutgers a 14-0 lead.
- Gary Nova, QB, Rutgers, 2014 - - Threw for 184 yards and two touchdowns, the first giving the Knights a 7-0 lead less than three minutes into the game and the second midway through that third quarter giving his team a 30-7 lead, while leading Rutgers to a 40-21 win over North Carolina.
- Marquise Williams, QB, North Carolina, 2014 - - Provided two of the Tar Heels' touchdowns, throwing for 198 yards and a score and rushing for 51 yards and another touchdown, in a losing effort in Rutgers' 40-21 win over the Heels in the inaugural game.
- Mitch Leidner, QB, Minnesota, 2015 - - Leidner ran for a 13-yard game winning touchdown with 4:26 left on the clock to solidify Minnesota's 21-14 victory over Central Michigan. The game's MVP had 223 yards, one passing touchdown, one rushing touchdown and a completed two-point conversion.
- KJ Maye, WR, Minnesota, 2015 - - Maye had one touchdown and completed the game winning touchdown's two-point conversion. The wide receiver finished with 67 total yards.
- Romello Ross, RB, Central Michigan, 2015 - - Ross rushed for 100 yards with one touchdown. His 4th quarter touchdown gave Central Michigan the late lead, but soon would fall to Minnesota.
- Ty Johnson, RB, Maryland, 2016 had a 62-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cut the Eagles' lead.
- Daniel Jones, QB, Duke, 2017 - MVP; 252 yards passing, 86 yards rushing, two passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown.
- Kenny Pickett, QB, PITT - MVP; 27/39 - 361 passing yards and 3 touchdowns

Last Year's Game:

The sixth annual Quick Lane Bowl, held at Ford Field in Detroit, Michigan, was played between the Eastern Michigan Eagles and Pitt Panthers on December 26th, 2019.

Pitt finished the regular season with a 7-5 record (4-4 in the ACC) and was looking to capture their second bowl win since the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. Pat Narduzzi returned to the state of Michigan seeking his first bowl victory as Pitt's head coach. Eastern Michigan became bowl eligible for the second straight season after finishing with a record of 6-6 (3-5 in the MAC). The Eagles and head coach Chris Creighton were looking to get their second bowl win in school history after their only victory came in the 1987 California Bowl.

In the opening possession of the game, Eastern Michigan quarterback Mike Glass III led the Eagles down the field completing 6/9 passes into Pitt territory. The drive ended with a 35 yard field goal by kicker Chad Ryland.

After a quick turnover by Pitt on their first possession, Eastern Michigan capitalized with a five play, 54 yard drive that ended with a 3 yard rushing touchdown by Mike Glass III giving the Eagles a 10-0 lead. Pitt responded early in the second quarter with a 44 yard field goal by kicker Alex Kessman. The Panthers regained possession after an Eastern Michigan punt pinned them at their own 4 yard line. On the first play of the drive, quarterback Kenny Pickett completed a pass to wide receiver Maurice Ffrench who took it 96 yards for a touchdown, tying the game at 10-10.

Both Eastern Michigan and Pitt put together touchdown scoring drives on the next two possessions. With about six minutes to go in the half, Eastern Michigan drove the ball down inside Pitt territory looking for a touchdown but settled for a 45 yard field goal giving the Eagles a 20-17 lead. After a quick three and out by Pitt, Eastern Michigan got the ball back with less than a minute but failed to convert any points heading into the locker room.

After both team's opening drives in the third quarter ended with punts, Pitt was the first to tack on points after an Eastern Michigan holding penalty on 4th down, putting the Panthers in field goal range. Kicker Alex Kessman nailed a 51 yarder tying the game at 20-20. The Eagles were able to respond early in the 4th quarter with an 11 play, 63 yard drive that ended with an Arthur Jackson III receiving touchdown putting Eastern Michigan back on top.

On the next possession, Pitt quarterback Kenny Pickett and running back Vincent Davis put together an impressive 75 yard drive resulting in a 19 yard receiving touchdown by Jared Wayne. With less than nine minutes to go, the Eagles drove the ball down inside Pitt territory and ended up taking a 30-27 lead from another Chad Ryland field goal.

After both Pitt and Eastern Michigan punted on their ensuing drives, the Panthers got the ball back with 2:37 to go in the game. Starting from their own 9 yard line, Pickett led the Panthers down the field hoping to at least get in field goal range to tie the game up. With 47 seconds left on the Eagles 25 yard line, Pickett hit wide receiver Taysir Mack for the go-ahead touchdown giving the Panthers a 34-30 lead. After Eastern Michigan was unable to convert on a 4th down play, Pitt ended the game by taking a knee as time expired giving the Panthers a 34-30 Quick Lane Bowl victory

Other Trivia:

-- Seven national champions have appeared in the game: UCLA, Miami [FL], USC, Florida State, Washington, Nebraska and BYU.

-- Boston College (three times/2003, 2009, 2010) and UCLA (three times/2006, 2011, 2015) are the only schools to play in the game more than one time.

-- Two of the NFL's best at their respective positions, now-retired Detroit WR Calvin Johnson & Carolina LB Luke Kuechly, have both played in the game.

Johnson played for Georgia Tech in 2005 and Kuechly for Boston College in both 2009 and 2010. Kuechly was named each game's outstanding defensive player despite being on the losing squad both years.

-- AT&T Park, home of the 3-time World Series champion [2010, 2012, 2014] San Francisco Giants, was the game's home for the first 12 years of its existence. Levi's Stadium, home of the San Francisco 49ers, is in its sixth season as the Bowl's home facility.

-- The Pac-12 owns an 8-4 record in the game. Winners include Oregon, Cal, USC, Washington, Oregon State, Arizona State, Utah, Stanford.

-- The Bowl during its history (2002-present]) has hosted teams from the Big East Conference, Mountain West Conference, Atlantic Coast Conference, Western Athletic Conference, Pac-12 Conference, Big Ten Conference, and independents Navy and BYU.

Memorable Games:

- 2005: Utah defensive back Eric Weddle got the best of his individual battle with Georgia Tech wide receiver Calvin Johnson in their matchup, with Johnson held to two catches and 29 yards in his final college game. Johnson was the second player picked in the NFL draft the following spring and Weddle was a second-round pick the following year. Utah set bowl records with 550 offensive yards and 31 first downs in a 38-10 win over the Yellow Jackets.
- 2004: Navy put together the longest drive in recorded college football history and it didn't even end with a touchdown -- a 26-play, 14-minute and 26-second march that began at its own 1-yard line and ending at New Mexico's 5-yard line. The drive began with four plays at the end of the third quarter and 22 straight in the fourth, ending with a 22-yard George Blumenfeld field goal. Navy won 34-19.
- 2012: Arizona State established numerous bowl records in its 62-28 victory over Navy. The Sun Devils led 34-7 at halftime and 62-14 after three quarters. ASU rolled up a record 648 total yards, collected 36 first downs and scored touchdowns on its first nine possessions.
- 2014: Stanford scored a Cardinal bowl record 45 points in a 45-21 victory over Maryland. Christian McCaffrey's 81 punt return yards set a bowl record, as did Stanford's six QB sacks. RB Remound Wright rushed for three first half touchdowns.
- 2015: Having finished the regular season 5-7, Nebraska looked for redemption in its bowl game and found it in a big way. The Cornhuskers, returning to their ground-and-pound roots, rushed for 326 yards en route to a 37-26 victory over UCLA. Nebraska's rushing game saw nine different players carry the ball, led by Devine Ozigbo with 87. The victors rang up 31 first downs overall and held the ball over 38 minutes.
- 2016: Utah led 17-7 at one point in the second quarter, but Indiana battled back and took a 24-23 lead in the fourth quarter. Joe Williams ran for a bowl-record 222 yards and a touchdown, while Andy Phillips kicked a 27-yard field goal with 1:24 to play to lead Utah to a 26-24 win, its 14th victory in the team's past 15 bowl games.
- 2019: Cal's offense stepped into the spotlight and carried the Bears to a 35-20 win over Illinois in the Redbox Bowl in front of 34,177 fans at Levi's Stadium. Quarterback Chase Garbers, named the game's Offensive MVP, was 21 of 32 for 272 yards with four touchdown passes, one TD run and no turnovers. The game featured the nation's two leading tacklers, Cal's Evan Weaver and Illinois' Dele Harding.

San Francisco Bowl

Top Individual Performances:

- Chase Garbers, QB, Cal, 2019 – Chase threw four touchdown passes and ran for another score, earning the offensive MVP and setting a new Bowl record, in the Bears 35-20 victory over Illinois.
- Joe Williams, RB, Utah, 2016 -- Led the Utes to a 26-24 win over Indiana with a Foster Farms Bowl record 222 rushing yards. Williams also recorded a 16-yard touchdown run.
- John Ross, KR, Washington, 2013 & William Likely, KR, Maryland, 2014 -- Ross and Likely each returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown and bowl record. Ross did so in a winning cause for the Huskies while Ross's came in a losing effort for the Terrapins.
- Taylor Kelly, QB, Arizona State, 2012 -- Threw four touchdown passes, still a bowl record, as Arizona State crushed Navy 62-28.
- Luke Kuechly, LB, Boston College, 2009 and 2010 -- Was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player two straight years, despite being on the losing side both times. He was a first-round NFL draft pick of the Carolina Panthers in 2012.
- Jahvid Best, RB, California, 2008 -- Set the Foster Farms Bowl record for most yards rushing in one game, 186, as the Golden Bears defeated Miami. Best, who played in the NFL for the Detroit Lions until a series of concussions ended his pro career, still holds the mark eight years later.
- Tony Carter, DB, Florida State, and Brandon Breazell, WR, UCLA, 2006 -- Both set bowl records in the passing game, Breazell catching the longest pass in bowl history with an 86-yard reception, and Carter setting a bowl mark with an 86-yard interception return for a touchdown.
- Travis LaTendresse, WR, Utah, 2005 -- Led the Utes to a 38-10 win over Georgia Tech with a record 16 catches including four touchdowns. He added a two-point conversion for a bowl-record 26 points.

Last Year's Game:

The Eighteenth Redbox Bowl matched two teams that had never met in a Bowl game -- Cal vs. Illinois. Both teams showcased their offenses early and were able to move the ball, with Cal leading 21-13 at the half. The game featured the nation's two leading tacklers – Cal's Evan Weaver and Illinois' Dele Harding. Cal ultimately ended up scoring a season high 35 points, with QB Chase Garbers continuing his impressive win streak of winning every game when he played more than one half in 2019.

Other Trivia:

- In 1975, Tony Dorsett rushed for 142 yards for Pittsburgh in a 33-19 win over Kansas. In that game, Pittsburgh set an all-time NCAA bowl record by having three players rush for over 100 yards in the same game. No bowl team has done that since that time.
- The 1987 Sun Bowl was dubbed the "Snow Bowl" with an unusual snowy Christmas Day in El Paso, but it didn't hamper the offenses as Oklahoma State held on for a 35-33 win over a Major Harris-quarterbacked West Virginia squad. Harris actually hit tight end Keith Winn with a potential tying two-point conversion pass, but Oklahoma State's Shawn Mackey stopped Winn short of the goal line to preserve the Cowboy win.
- In the 1984 regular season, Maryland had the greatest comeback in college football history with a 42-point second half rally to down Miami 42-40. In the Sun Bowl that year, the Terrapins had a similar performance, coming back from 21 down at halftime to top Tennessee 28-27.

Memorable Games:

- 1984: Maryland, which had come back from 40 points down to beat Miami in the regular season, rallied from a 21-point halftime deficit to top Tennessee 28-27 in the second-biggest Sun Bowl comeback ever. Maryland fullback Rick Badanjek score twice, the final one a winning one-yard run with 2:28 left. The game marked the third visit by coach Johnny Majors with a third team after bringing Iowa State in 1971 and Pittsburgh in 1975.
- 2006: Oregon State was favored, but it took two late scores and a gutsy play to take a 39-38 win over Missouri. The Tigers led by 14 with 12 minutes left before QB Matt Moore led two scoring drives, the last touchdown coming with 0:23 left. OSU chose to go for the two-point conversion, which was converted by Yvenson Bernard for the win. Moore threw for 356 yards and a bowl-record four scores and also ran for a score.
- 2009: Ryan Broyles set a bowl record with three touchdown catches from quarterback Landry Jones, who passed for 418 yards in Oklahoma's win over Stanford. The Sooners won in spite of a strong performance by Stanford running back Toby Gerhart, the nation's leading rusher with 1,736 yards for the year, who finished with 135 yards and scored two TD's in the first half.

Top Individual Performances:

- Priest Holmes, RB, Texas, 1994 -- Rushed for 161 yards on 27 carries and scored four touchdowns in leading Texas to a 35-31 win over North Carolina. He had 106 rush yards in the second half, including a nine-yard TD run with 6:35 left that pulled Texas within three points and a five-yard scoring run on the game-winning late drive.
- Alex Van Pelt, QB, Pittsburgh, 1989 -- Completed 20 of 40 passes for 354 yards and two scores, including the game-winning 44-yard strike to Henry Tuten with two minutes left to give Pittsburgh a 31-28 win over Texas A&M.
- Thurman Thomas, RB, Oklahoma State, 1987 -- Set Sun Bowl records for rushing attempts (33) and touchdowns (four) in leading the Cowboys to a 35-33 win over West Virginia and QB Major Harris.
- Kyle Orton, QB, Purdue, 2002 -- Completed 25-of-37 passes for 283 yards and two touchdowns, guiding the Boilermakers back from a 17-0 deficit to a 34-24 win.

Other Trivia:

- On April 21, 2017, it was announced that the Miami Beach Bowl – which had been owned and operated by the American Athletic Conference ("The American") – had been sold to ESPN Events and that it would relocate to Frisco, Texas, to be played in Toyota Stadium for the 2017 season.
- The newly created Frisco Bowl is owned and operated by ESPN Events, a division of ESPN, and is affiliated with the American Athletic Conference. ESPN Events has entered into a partnership with FC Dallas to host and manage the bowl game and its ancillary events.

Memorable Games:

2014: Memphis wasted a pair of double-digit leads and needed a 54-yard field goal from Jake Elliott to force a second overtime period, but Paxton Lynch's 11-yard touchdown pass to Roderick Proctor and an interception by Christian Stewart in the second overtime helped the Tigers take a 55-48 win over BYU in the inaugural game.

Top Individual Performances:

2019: Dustin Crum, QB, Kent State – Crum completed 80.8% of his passes (21 of 26) in the game. He also had a career best 147 net rushing yards on 23 carries.

2018: A.J. Ouellette, RB, OHIO -- This was the fourth straight 100-yard rushing game for the senior running back with 164 yards on 29 carries for the Bobcats.

2015: Brandon Doughty, QB, WKU -- The redshirt senior quarterback led the Conference USA-Champion Hilltoppers to victory, throwing for 461 yards and three touchdowns. The game MVP also set a school single season passing record, finishing with 5,055 yards total yards in his final campaign.

2014: Paxton Lynch, QB, Memphis -- Threw four touchdown passes and rushed for three more scores, tying the NCAA record for most touchdowns responsible for in a bowl game, in leading Memphis to a double-overtime 55-48 win over BYU in the inaugural game. Lynch threw for 306 yards, including a five-yard score in the final minute of regulation to force overtime and an 11-yard score in the second overtime for the eventual victory margin.

2014: Christian Stewart, QB, BYU -- Passed for 348 yards and three touchdowns, while twice guiding the Cougars back from 10-point deficits before falling 55-48 in double overtime to Memphis in the inaugural game.

2014: Keiwone Malone, WR, Memphis -- Caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns – a 33-yard score 1:06 into the game and an 11-yard grab with 45 seconds left in regulation – to help Memphis take a 55-48 double-overtime win over BYU.

Last Year's Game:

All-Time Bowl Individual and Team Records

INDIVIDUAL BOWL RECORDS

Only official records after 1937 are included. Prior records are included if able to be substantiated. Each team's score is in parentheses after the team name. The year listed is the actual (calendar) year the game was played; the date is included if the bowl was played twice (i.e., January and December) during one calendar year. The list also includes discontinued bowls, marked with (D). Bowls are listed by the name of the bowl at the time it was played. Records list is courtesy of the NCAA.
